(d) in Sections 134 and 136 for the words "by or under this Act" the words "by or under the Uttar Pradesh Municipalities Act, 1916" had been substituted.

(2)- If [Chief Election Officer (Urban Local Bodies)], has reason to believe that any offence punishable under Section 129 or Section 134 or Section 134-A or under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of Section 136 of the said chapter has been committed in reference to any election to a [Municipality], it shall be the duty of the [Chief Election Officer (Urban Local Bodies)] to cause such inquiries to be made and such prosecutions to be instituted as the circumstances of the case may appear to him to require.

(3) No Court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under Section 129 or under Section 134 or under Section 134-A or under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of Section 136 unless there is a complaint made by order or under authority from the [Chief Election Officer (Urban Local Bodies)].

²[13K. Jurisdiction of Civil Courts. - (1) No Civil Court shall have jurisdiction, -

(a) to entertain or adjudicate upon any question whether any person is or is not entitled to be registered in an electoral roll of a ward; or]

[(b) to question the legality of any action taken by or under the authority of the State Election Commission in respect of preparation or publication of electoral roll; or]

(c) to question the legality of any action taken or any decision given by the Returning Officer or by any other officer appointed under this Act in connection with an election.

(2) No election shall be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

19. Power to question municipal election by petition. - (1) The election of any person as a member of a [Municipality] may be questioned by an election petition on the ground, -

(a) that such person committed during or in respect of the election proceedings a corrupt practice as defined in Section 28;

(b) that such person was declared to be elected by reason of the improper rejection or admission of one or more votes, or any other reason was not duly elected by a majority of lawful votes;

¹[(c) that such person was not qualified to be nominated as a candidate for election or that the nomination paper of the petitioner was improperly rejected.]

(2) The election of any person as a member of a [Municipality] shall not be questioned, -

(a) on the ground that the name of any person qualified to vote has been omitted from, or the name of any person not qualified to vote has been inserted in the electoral roll or rolls;

[(b)] on the ground of any non-compliance with this Act or any rule, or of any mistake in the forms required thereby, or of any error, irregularity or informality on the part of the officer or officers charged with carrying out this Act or any rules, unless such non-compliance, mistake, error, irregularity or informality has materially affected the result of the election.

²[20. Form and presentation of election petitions. - (1) An election petition shall be presented within 30 days after the day of which the result of the election sought to be questioned is announced by the Returning Officer, and shall specify the ground or grounds on which the election of the respondent is questioned and shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies and set for the full particulars of any corrupt practices that the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practices and the dates and place of the commission of each such practice.

(2) The petition shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the verification of pleadings.

(3) The petition may be presented by any candidate in whose favour votes have been recorded and who claims in the petition to be declared elected in the room of the person whose election is questioned or by ten or more electors of the municipality or by a person who claims that his nomination paper was improperly rejected.

(4) The person whose election is questioned and, where the petitioner claims that any other candidate should be declared elected in the room of such person, every unsuccessful candidate who is not a petitioner in the petition shall be made a respondent to the petition.]

[(5) The petition shall be presented to the District Judge exercising jurisdiction in the area in which the municipality, to which the election petition relates, is situate :

² subs by up act no 26 of 1964

Provided that the petition shall not be entertained by the District Judge, unless it is accompanied by a treasury challan showing that the prescribed security has been deposited].

¹[21. Recriminatory proceedings. - (1) Where in an election petition a declaration that any candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected is claimed, the returned candidate or any other party may give evidence to prove that the election of such other candidate would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented calling in question his election :

Provided that the returned candidate or such other party shall not be entitled to give such evidence unless he has within twenty-one days from the date of the service upon him of the notice of the election petition, given notice to the election tribunal of his intention to do so and has also deposited the security prescribed in the case of an election petition questioning the election of a member.

(2) Every notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by a statement of ground or grounds and of material facts and full particulars required by Section 20 in the case of an election petition and shall be signed and verified in like manner].

1[22. Hearing of election petition. - (1) An election petition not complying with the provisions of Section 20 or upon which the requisite court-fee has not been paid at the time of presentation or within such further time not exceeding fourteen days as the] [District Judge], as the case may be, may have granted, shall be rejected by such Judge.

[(2) An election petition not rejected under sub-section (1) shall be heard by the District Judge.]

23. Procedure. - Except so far as may be otherwise provided by this Act or by rule, the procedure provided in the Civil Procedure Code (Act V of 1908) in regard to suits, shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with this Act or any rule and so far it can be made applicable, be followed in the hearing of election petitions :

Provided that, -

(a) two or more persons whose election is called in question may be made respondents to the same petition, and their cases may be tried at the same time, and any two or more election petitions may be heard together; but, so far as is consistent with such joint trial or hearing, the petition shall be deemed to be separate petition against each respondent;

(b) the [District Judge] shall not be required to record or have recorded the evidence in full, but shall make a memorandum of the evidence sufficient in its option for the purpose of deciding the case;

(c) the [District Judge] may, at any stage of the proceedings, require the petitioner to give [* * *] further security for the payment of all costs incurred or likely to be incurred by any respondent;

(d) the [District Judge] for the purpose of deciding any issue, shall only be bound to require the production of, or to receive so much evidence, oral or documentary, as it considers necessary;

(e) during the hearing of the case the [District Judge] may refer a question of law to the High Court under Order XLVI of the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, but there shall be no appeal either on a question of law or fact, and no application in revision against or in respect of the decision of the [District Judge];

[(f) any person considering himself aggrieved by the decision may apply for review to the] [District Judge] within thirty days from the date of the decision and the [District Judge] may thereupon review the decision on any point;

[Provided that in computing the period of limitation the provision of sub-section (2) of Section 12 of the Limitation Act, 1963 shall apply.]

23A. ¹[* * *]

²24. Provisions as to costs. - An order for costs or an order for the realization of a security bond for costs passed by the District Judge in an election petition under this Act may be sent by him for execution to the Collector of the district in which the municipality concerned is situated and an order so sent shall be executed by the Collector in the same manner as if it were in respect of arrears of land revenue].

25. Finding of [the District Judge]. - [(1) If the] [District Judge], after making such inquiry as it deems necessary, finds in respect of any person whose election is called in question by a petition, that his election was valid, it shall dismiss the petition as against such person and may award costs at its discretion and may also pass such order for return or forfeiture of the security or part thereof as he may deem fit.

(2) If the [District Judge] finds that the election of any person was invalid, [or that nomination paper of the petitioner was improperly rejected,] it shall either, -

(a) declare a casual vacancy to have been created; or

(b) declare another candidate to have been duly elected, whichever course appears, in the particular circumstances of the case, the more appropriate, and in either case may award costs at its discretion.

(3) [* * *]

26. Avoidance of election proceedings. - (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding section if the [District Judge] in the course of hearing an election petition is of the opinion that the evidence discloses that corrupt practices at the election proceedings in question have prevailed to such an extent as to render it advisable to set aside the whole proceedings, it shall pass a conditional order to this effect and give notice thereof to every candidate declared elected who has not already been made a party in the case calling upon him to show cause why such conditional order should not be made final.

¹ ommited by up act no 17 of 1982

(2) Thereupon every such candidate may appear and show cause, and may have recalled, for the purpose of putting question to him, any witness who has appeared in the case.

(3) The [District Judge] shall thereafter either cancel the conditional order or make it absolute, in which case it shall direct the [Municipality] to take measures for holding fresh election proceedings.

Explanation. - In this clause the expressions "the election proceedings in questions" and the "whole proceedings" shall mean all proceedings (inclusive of nomination and declaration of election) taken in respect of a single poll, whether the poll be for the purpose of selecting one or more persons to represent a ward or otherwise.

27. Disqualification of corrupt practice. - (1) The [District Judge] may declare any candidate found to have committed any corrupt practice [* * *] to be incapable, for any period not exceeding five years, of being elected as a member of the [Municipality] or of being appointed or retained in any office or place in the gift or disposal of the [Municipality] [:]
[Provided that no such declaration shall be made about any candidate who was not a party to the election petition or who was not given an opportunity of being heard under Section 26].

28. Corrupt practices. - A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice who, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person, -

- (i) induces, or attempts to induce, by fraud, intentional misrepresentation, coercion or threat of injury, any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate;
- (ii) with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offers or gives any money, or valuable consideration, or any place, or employment, or holds out any promise or individual advantage or profit to any person;
- (iii) gives or procures the giving of a vote in the name of a voter who is not the person giving such vote;
- (iv) abets [within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code (Act 15 of 1860)] the doing of any of the acts specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii);
- [(v) induces or attempts to induce a candidate or elector to believe that he, or any person in whom he is interested, will become or will be rendered an object to divine displeasure or spiritual censure;
- (vi) canvasses on grounds of caste, community, sect or religion;]
- (vii) commits such other practice as the [State Government], may by rule prescribe to be corrupt practice.

Explanation. - A "promise of individual advantage or profit to person" includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself, or of any one in whom he is interested, but does not include a promise to vote for or against any particular municipal measure.

Control of [Municipality]

[30. Power of State Government to dissolve the municipality. - If at any time the State Government is satisfied that a municipality persistently makes default in the performance of duties imposed upon it by or under this Act or any other law for the time being in force or exceeds or abuses more than once its powers, it may, after having given the municipality a reasonable opportunity to show cause why such order should not be made, by order, published with the reasons therefor in the Official Gazette, dissolve the municipality.]

31.¹ [* * *]

[31A. Consequences of dissolution of municipality. - Where a municipality is dissolved under Section 30, the following consequences shall follow :

(a) All members of the municipality including the President shall, on a date to be specified to the order, vacate their offices as such but without prejudice to their eligibility for re-election or renomination;

(b) Until the constitution of the new municipality -

(i) all powers, functions and duties of the municipality, its President and Committees shall be vested in and be exercised, performed and discharged by such person or persons as the State Government may appoint in that behalf and such person or persons, shall be deemed in law to be the municipality, the President or the Committee, as the occasion may require;

(ii) such salary and allowances of such person or persons as the State Government may by general or special order in that behalf fix, shall be paid out of Municipal fund;

(iii) the State Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, make such incidental or consequential provisions, including provisions for adapting, altering or modifying any provisions of this Act, without affecting the substance, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of this section.]

31B. Director of Local Bodies. - (1) The State Government shall appoint an officer to be the Director of Local Bodies, Uttar Pradesh.

(2) In addition to the function expressly assigned to him by or under this Act, the Director shall exercise such powers of the State Government in relation to the affairs of a [Municipality] (not being powers under Section 30) as the State Government may, by notification in the Gazette, and subject to such conditions and restrictions (including the conditions of review by itself) as may be specified in such notification, delegate to him.

32. Supervision by Prescribed Authority. - The [Prescribed Authority] may, -

(a) -inspect, or cause to be inspected, [by an officer not below the rank of a Sub-Divisional Officer] any immovable property used or occupied by a [Municipality] or Joint Committee or any work in progress under the direction of a [Municipality] or of such committee;

(b)- by order in writing call for and inspect a book or document in the possession or under the control of a [Municipality] or of such committee;

(c) -by order in writing require a [Municipality] or such committee to furnish such statements, accounts, reports or copies of documents, relating to the proceedings or duties of the [Municipality] or committee, as [it] thinks fit to call for; and

(d)- record in writing for the consideration of a [Municipality] or of such committee, any observations as [it] thinks proper in regard to the proceedings or duties of the [Municipality] or committee.

33. Inspection of municipal works and institution by Government officers. - A work, or institution, constructed or maintained, in whole or in part at the expense of a [Municipality], and all registers, books, accounts or other documents relating thereto, shall at all times be open to inspection by such officers as the [State Government] appoints in this behalf.

34. Power of the State Government or the Prescribed Authority or the District Magistrate to prohibit execution or further execution of resolution or order of [Municipality]. -

(1) [The Prescribed Authority may], by order in writing, prohibit the execution or further execution of a resolution or order passed or made under this or any other enactment by a [Municipality] or a committee of a [Municipality] or a Joint Committee or any officer or servant of a [Municipality] or of a Joint Committee [if in its opinion] such resolution or order is of a nature to cause or tend to cause obstruction, annoyance or injury to the public or to any class or body of persons lawfully employed [* * *] and may prohibit the doing or continuance by any person of any act in pursuance for or under cover of such resolution or order.

¹[(1A) The District Magistrate may, within the limits of his district, by order in writing, prohibit the execution or further execution of a resolution or order passed or made under this or any other enactment by a] [Municipality] or a committee of a [Municipality] or a Joint Committee or any officer or servant of a [Municipality] or of a Joint Committee if in his opinion such resolution or order is of a nature to cause or tend to cause danger to human life, health or safety, or a riot or affray, and may prohibit the doing or continuance by any person of any act, in pursuance of or under cover of such resolution or order.

²[(1B) the State Government may, on its own motion or on report or complaint received by order prohibit the execution or further execution of a resolution or order passed or made under this or any other enactment by a] [Municipality] or a committee of a [Municipality] or a Joint Committee or any officer or servant of a [Municipality] or of a Joint Committee, if in its opinion such resolution or order is prejudicial to the public interest, [or has been passed or made in abuse of powers or in flagrant breach of any provision of any law for the time being in force,] and may prohibit the doing or continuance by any person of any act in pursuance of or under cover of such resolution or order.

[(2) Where an order is made under sub-section (1) or (1-A)] [* * *], a copy thereof with a statement of the reasons for making it, shall forthwith be forwarded by the Prescribed Authority or the District Magistrate through the Prescribed Authority, as the case may be, to the State Government which may thereupon, if it thinks fit, rescind or modify the order.

² added bu U.P.Act no 7 of 1949

(3) [* * *]

(4) Where the execution or further execution of a resolution or order is prohibited by an order made under sub-section (1), (1-A) or (1-B) and continuing in force, it shall be the duty of the [Municipality], if so required by the authority making the order under the said sub-sections to take any action which it would have been entitled to take, if the resolution or order had never been made or passed, and which is necessary for preventing any person from doing or continuing to do anything under cover of the resolution or order of which the further execution is prohibited.

35. Power of the State Government and Prescribed Authority in case of default of [Municipality]. - (1) If at any time, upon representation made or otherwise, it appears to the State Government that [a municipality] has made default in performing a duty imposed on it by or under this or any other enactment, [or in carrying out any order made or direction issued by the State Government in exercise of any power conferred by this Act or any other enactment] the State Government [* * *] may (after calling for an explanation from the [Municipality] and considering any objection by the [Municipality] to action being taken under this section), by order in writing fix a period for the performance of that duty [or the carrying out of that order or direction].

(2) If that duty is not performed [or the order or direction is not carried out] within the period so fixed, the State Government [* * *] may appoint the District Magistrate [or any officer not below the rank of a Deputy Collector] to perform it and may direct that the expense (if any) of performing the duty [or executing the order or direction] shall be paid, within such time as may be fixed, to the District Magistrate by the [Municipality].

(3) If the expense is not so paid, the District Magistrate, with the previous sanction of the State Government [* * *] may make an order directing the person having the custody of the Municipal fund to pay the expense from such fund.

36. Extraordinary powers of District Magistrate in case of emergency. - (1) In case of emergency the District Magistrate may [with the permission of the Prescribed Authority] provide for the execution of any work or the doing of any act which the [Municipality] is empowered to execute or do and of which the immediate execution or doing, is in his opinion, necessary [for the safety, protection or convenience of the public] and may direct that the expense of executing the work or doing the act shall be forthwith paid by the [Municipality].

(2) If the expense is not so paid, the District Magistrate may make an order directing the person having the custody of the Municipal fund to pay the expense from such fund.

(3) The District Magistrate shall forthwith report to the [Prescribed Authority] every case in which he uses the powers conferred on him by this section.

Municipal members

37. Prohibition of remuneration to members and President. - No member or President of a [Municipality] shall be granted any remuneration or travelling allowance by the [Municipality] except with the sanction of State Government or in accordance with rules made in this behalf.

38. Term of office of members elected [or nominated] to fill casual vacancies. - (1) The term of office of a member elected [or nominated] to fill a casual vacancy or a vacancy remaining unfilled at the general election shall begin upon the declaration of his election [or nomination] under the Act and shall be the remainder of the term of the [Municipality].

(2) [* * *]

(3) [* * *]

(4) [* * *]

(5) [* * *]

38A. [* * *]

39. Resignation of members. - [If a member of a] [Municipality] other than the President resigns by writing under his hand addressed to the State Government, his seat shall thereupon become vacant. The resignation shall be delivered at the office of the District Magistrate of the district, in which the municipality is situate who shall forthwith inform the President and shall forward the resignation to State Government.

40. Removal of members. - [(1) The State Government] [* * *] may remove a member of the [Municipality] on any of the following grounds, -

(a) that he has absented himself from the meetings of the [Municipality] for more than three consecutive months or three consecutive meetings whichever is the longer period, without obtaining sanction from the [Municipality] :

Provided that the period during which the member was in jail as an under trial, detenu or as a political prisoner, shall not be taken into account;

(b) that he has incurred any of the disqualifications mentioned in Sections [12-D and 13-D];

(c) that he has within the meaning of Section 82, knowingly acquired or continued to hold, directly or indirectly, or by a partner, any [share or interest, whether pecuniary or of any other nature] in any contract by or on behalf of the [Municipality];

(d) that he has knowingly acted as a member in a matter other than a matter referred to in Section 82 in which he or a partner had, directly or indirectly a [personal interest, whether pecuniary or of any other nature] or in which he was professionally interested on behalf of a client, principal or other person; [* * *]

[(e) that he being a legal practitioner has during the term of his membership acted or appeared in any suit or other proceeding on behalf of any person against the] [Municipality] or against the State Government in respect of nazul and entrusted to the management of the [Municipality] or acted or appeared for or on behalf of any person against whom a criminal proceeding has been instituted by or on behalf of the [Municipality];

[(f) that he has abandoned his ordinary place of residence in or has voluntarily or otherwise transferred his residence from the municipal area concerned, unless the member himself resigns his seat within three months of such abandonment or transfer;]

[(g) that he has been guilty of persistent misbehaviour or disorderly conduct at meetings of the] [Municipality] and a complaint to that effect is made to the State Government by the President or any other member; or

[(h) that he has been guilty of any other misconduct whether as member or as] [* * ] or President or as [ * *] exercising the powers of President whether committed before or after the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Local Self-Government Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976.

(2) [* * *]

[(3) The State Government may remove from the] [Municipality] a member who, in his opinion, while being a member during the current or the last preceding terms of the [Municipality], acting as President or a [* * ], or a [ * *], or Chairman of a Committee or member, or in any other capacity whatsoever, has, whether, before, or after the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Local Self-Government Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976, so flagrantly abused his position, or so wilfully contravened any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation or bye-law, or caused such loss or damage to the fund or property of the [Municipality], as to render him unfit to continue as a member.

(4) Provided that [when the State Government] proposes to take action under the foregoing provisions of this section, an opportunity of explanation shall be given to the member concerned, and when such action is taken, the reasons therefor shall be placed on record.

(5) [* * *]

[(6) Without prejudice to any of the foregoing powers, the State Government may on any of the grounds referred to in sub-section (1), instead of removing the member give him a warning.]

Explanation. - The power of administering warning or placing a member under suspension under sub-section (6) may be exercised either by the State Government or the Prescribed Authority, as the case may be, while dealing with the matter originally under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) or by the State Government on appeal under sub-section (2).

41. Disability of members removed under Section 40. - (1) A member removed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of the preceding section shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible for further election [* * *] or nomination.

(2) A member removed under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of the preceding section [* * ] shall not be so eligible [ * *] [unless his disqualification no longer exists].

(3) A member removed under sub-section (3) of the preceding section shall not be so eligible for a period of [five] years from the date of his removal :

Provided that the State Government may for sufficient reason exempt any person from his disability.

(4) A member removed under any other provision of the preceding section shall not be so eligible until he is declared [for reasons to be specified] to be no longer ineligible, and he may be so declared, by an order of the State Government [* * *].

42. [* * *]

President and vice-president

[43. Election of President. - (1) The President of the municipality shall be elected on the basis of adult suffrage by the electors in the municipal area.

(2) An outgoing President shall be eligible for re-election.

(3) The provision of this Act and the rules framed thereunder in relation to election (including disputes relating to election and electoral offences) of a member shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to election of the President.

(4) If in a general election a person is elected both as member and President of the municipality or being a member of the municipality is elected President thereof in any bye-election, he shall, except as provided in Section 49, cease to be a member from the date of his election as President.]

[43A. Bar on simultaneously holding the post of President or] [* * ] in different local authorities. - No person shall be at the same time the President or [ * *] both of a [Municipality] and any other local authority :

Provided that if a person is elected to any such or similar office of more than one local authority, he shall, at his option, continue to hold the office in one local authority and resign from other within a prescribed period.]

[43AA. Qualification for Presidentship. -] [(1) A person shall not be qualified to be chosen as President of a] [Municipality] unless he, -

(a) is an elector for any ward [in the municipal area];

(b) has attained the age of thirty years on the date of his nomination as a candidate for election to the office of President.

(2) A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, President of a [Municipality] if he, -

- (a) is or has become subject to any of the disqualification [mentioned in clauses (a) to (g) and (i) to (k)] of Section 13-D and the disqualification has not ceased or been removed under the said section; or
- (b) [* * *]

43B. [* * *]

[43BB. Transfer of petition. - (1) On the application of any party to an election petition presented under sub-section (5) of Section 20] [* * *], and after notice to the other parties thereto, and after hearing such of them as desire to be heard, or of its own motion, without such notice, the High Court may at any stage, -

- (a) transfer an election petition pending before a District Judge for trial to any other District Judge; or
- (b) re-transfer the same for trial to the District Judge from whom it was withdrawn.

(2) The District Judge may at any stage transfer an election petition pending before him under this Act to an Additional District Judge and may withdraw any election petition pending before an Additional District Judge and, -

- (i) transfer or dispose of the same; or
- (ii) transfer the same for trial or disposal to any other Additional District Judge; or
- (iii) re-transfer the same for trial or disposal to the Court from which it was withdrawn.

(3) Where any election petition has been transferred or re-transferred under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the District Judge or the Additional District Judge, who thereafter tries such petition, may, subject to any direction in the order of transfer to the contrary, proceed from the point at which it was transferred or re-transferred :

Provided that he may, if he thinks fit, recall and re-examine any of the witnesses already examined.

[43C. Power of] [the State Election Commission] to make order regarding election of President. - [In so far as provision with respect to any of the following matters is not made by this Act or the rules made thereunder, the State Election Commission may] by order, make provision with respect to the following matters concerning the conduct of [* * *] election of President, that is to say, -

- (a) the appointment, powers and duties of Returning Officers;
- (b) appointment of dates for nomination, scrutiny, withdrawal and polling;
- (c) the manner of presentation and the form of nomination paper, the requirements for a valid nomination, scrutiny of nominations and withdrawal of candidature;
- (d) procedure at election, including death of candidate before poll and procedure of contested and uncontested elections;
- (e) hours of polling and adjournment of poll;

- (f) manner of voting at elections;
- (g) scrutiny and counting of votes including re-counting of votes and procedure to be followed in case of equality of votes;
- (h) declaration and notification of results;
- (i) deposit of security with nomination and return and forfeiture thereof;
- (j) to (r) [* * *]

[43D. Oath of allegiance and office. - (1) The President and every member of a] [Municipality] shall, before taking his seat, make and subscribe at a meeting of the [Municipality] an oath or affirmation of his allegiance to the Constitution in the following form :-

"1. A. B., having been elected a member/President of this [Municipality] do swear in the name of God/solemnly affirm that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of India as by law established, that I will uphold the sovereignty and integrity of India, and that I will faithfully and conscientiously discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter."

(2) The President or the members who fails to make, within three months of the date on which his term of office commences or at any one of the first three meetings of the [Municipality], held after the said date, whichever is later, unless this period is extended by the District Magistrate, the oath or affirmation laid down in and required to be taken by sub-section (1) shall cease to hold his office and his seat shall be deemed to have become vacant.

(3) Any person required under sub-section (1) to make an oath or affirmation shall not take his seat at a meeting of the [Municipality] or do any act as a member or President of the [Municipality] unless he has made and subscribed an oath or affirmation as laid down under sub-section (1).

[(4) Within seven days of the constitution or reconstitution of the Municipality, the District Magistrate shall convene a meeting of the Municipality for the Administration of oath or affirmation in the manner prescribed in this section and such meeting shall be presided over by the District Magistrate or in his absence by a Deputy Collector nominated by him in this behalf. The meeting, so convened shall be treated as the First Meeting of the Municipality.]

(5) The Executive Officer shall, as soon as may be, report to the District Magistrate the name of the President or Member, if any, who ceases to hold his office under sub-section (2).

(b) by single transferable vote elect such of its members as it thinks fit for a period not exceeding one year to any committee so established, in accordance with the method prescribed in the Regulations made by the Chairman of the Legislative Council of Uttar Pradesh in pursuance of Orders 82 and 87 of the Standing Orders, for the conduct of business and procedure to be followed in the Legislative Council and dated 15th March, 1921, the words "the President" and "the Council" and "the Council" occurring in the said Regulations being for purposes of this clause read as "President of the Municipality" and "[Municipality]" respectively; provided that the State Government may, from time to time, as it thinks fit amend the said Regulations for the purposes of this clause; and

(c) by resolution remove any member elected under clause (b).

[(1A) In any committee exclusively for the education of girls established under the preceding sub-section not less than one-half of its members shall be women members of the] [Municipality] together with such other women who, being residents of the municipality but not members of the [Municipality], are, by reason of their interest in the education of girls, appointed under Section 105.

The Chairman of any such committee shall be a person elected from amongst the women members of such committee :

Provided that a [Municipality] may, from time to time, by resolution establish, and appoint the members of one, or more than one, advisory committee for the purpose of enquiring into, and reporting on any matter in respect of which a decision of the [Municipality] is required by or under this Act.

105. Appointment of persons other than members. - (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, it shall be lawful for a [Municipality] by a resolution supported by not less than one-half of the whole number of members for the time being to appoint as members of a committee any persons of either sex who are not members of the [Municipality], but who in the opinion of the [Municipality], possess special qualifications for serving on such committee :

Provided that the number of persons so appointed on a committee shall not exceed one-third of the total number of the members of committee.

(2) All the provisions of this Act, and of any rules relating to the duties, powers, liabilities, disqualifications and disabilities of members shall, save as regards a disqualification on the grounds of sex, be applicable, so far as may be, to such persons.

106. Vacancies in Committees. - A vacancy occurring in any committee may at any time be filled up by the appointment by the [Municipality], in the manner prescribed by Section 104, or Section 105, of another member or persons.

107. President of a Committee. - (1) The [Municipality] may by resolution appoint a President for any committee.

(2) In default of a President being appointed by the [Municipality], a committee shall appoint its own President from among its members.

108. Procedure of Committees. - (1) The provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 92, of Section 93, and of sub-sections (1), (2), (4), (5) and (6) of Section 94 shall apply to the proceedings of committees of [Municipality], as if the words "a committee" were substituted for the words " a [Municipality]" or "the [Municipality]" whenever they occur therein.

(2) Committees may meet and adjourn as they think proper, but the President of the committee may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written request of the [President] of the [Municipality] or of not less than two members of the committee, call a meeting of the committee.

(3) Subject to the provision contained in sub-section (4), no business shall be transacted at any meeting unless more than one-fourth of the members of the committee are present thereat.

(4) Where it is necessary to postpone any business at a meeting of a committee for want of the prescribed quorum, the procedure specified in sub-section (3) of Section 88 shall be followed.

109. Subordination of Committees to [Municipality]. - (1) The [Municipality] may at any time call for any extract from any proceedings of any committee and for any return, statement, account or report concerning or connected with any matter with which the committee has been authorized, or directed to deal.

(2) Every committee shall, with all convenient speed, comply with any requisition of the [Municipality] made under sub-section (1).

[(3) The] [Municipality] may, for reasons to be recorded, vary or override any decision of the committee.

110. Joint Committee. - (1) A [Municipality] may, and if so required by the [State Government] shall, combine with one, or more than one, other assenting local authority to appoint by means of a written instrument subscribed by the local authorities concerned, a joint committee for the purpose of transacting any business in which they are jointly interested.

(2) Such instrument shall prescribe the number of members who shall be chosen by each local authority to represent it upon the joint committee, the person who shall be [President] thereof, the powers being powers exercisable by one or more of the concurring local authorities which may be exercised by the joint committee, and the method of conducting the proceedings and correspondence thereof.

(3) Such instrument may, from time to time, be varied or rescinded by a further instrument subscribed by all the local authorities concerned, and in the event of the rescission of any instrument under this sub-section, all proceedings thereunder shall be deemed inoperative with effect from a date to be specified in such further instrument.

(4) Any difference of opinion arising in the course of any proceeding under the foregoing provisions of this section, between two or more local authorities shall be decided by reference to the [State Government] under Section 325.

110A. Formation of State [Municipalities] Union and its functions. - (1) The [Municipalities] in Uttar Pradesh may combine to form an association to be called the State [Municipalities] Union, provided that no such association shall be formed unless more than half the number of [Municipalities] in the State severally pass a resolution signifying their intention to become members.

(2) The functions of the union formed under sub-section (1) of this section shall be to examine problems of common interest to the [Municipalities], advise the [Municipalities] on the improvement of municipal administration and to perform such other function as the [State Government] may, from time to time, prescribe.

(3) The following matters shall be regulated and governed by rules made by the [State Government], viz., -

- (a) the constitution and aims and objects of the union;
- (b) the amount and the method of contribution of [Municipalities] to the union;
- (c) the management and control of finances of the union;
- (d) [* * *]
- (e) generally such other matter as may be necessary for the purpose of this section.

Exercise and delegation of powers by [Municipality]

111. Powers of which the exercise is reserved to a [Municipality] acting by resolution. - (1) The powers, duties and functions specified in the second column of Schedule 1, with the exception of those against which an entry is shown in the third column of that schedule, may be exercised, and shall be performed or discharged by a [Municipality] or by resolution passed at a meeting of the [Municipality] and not otherwise.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be construed to prevent a resolution of a [Municipality] being carried into execution by any agency duly authorized in this behalf by or under the Act or by a servant of the [Municipality] acting within the scope of his employment.

112. Delegation of powers by [Municipality]. - (1) With the exception of a power, duty or function, -

(a) specified in the second column, and against which no entry is shown in the third column of Schedule I;

(b) reserved or assigned to a [President] by clauses (a), (b) and (c) of Section 50 or by Section 51; and

[(c) where there is an Executive Officer or a Medical Officer of Health, reserved to the Executive Officer by Section 60 or to the Medical Officer of Health by Section 60-A;]

a [Municipality] may delegate by resolution all or any of the powers, duties or functions conferred or imposed on, or assigned to, a [Municipality] under this Act.

(2) Except as provided in sub-section (3), a [Municipality] shall not itself exercise, perform or discharge or interfere in the exercise, performance or discharge of any power, duty or function which it has delegated under sub-section (1).

(3) The delegation by the [Municipality] under sub-section (1) of any power, duty or function may be made subject to the condition that all or any orders made in pursuance of such delegation shall be subject to the right of appeal to, or revision by, the [Municipality] within a specified period.

(4) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed to prevent a resolution of a committee of a [Municipality] being carried into execution by any agency duly authorized in this behalf by or under this Act, or to preclude any servant of the [Municipality] from acting within the scope of employment.

Validity of acts and proceedings

113. Presumptions and savings. - (1) No vacancy in a [Municipality] or in a committee of a [Municipality] shall vitiate any act or proceeding of a [Municipality] or of such committee.

(2) No disqualification, or defect in the [election or nomination], of a person acting a [member of a municipality or in the election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member] or a committee appointed under this Act or as the President or the Chairman, as the case may be of a meeting of a [Municipality] or of such committee, shall be deemed to vitiate any act or proceeding of the [Municipality] or of the committee, if the majority of the persons present at the time of the act being done, or proceeding being taken, were qualified and duly elected [or nominated] members of the [Municipality] or committee.

(3) Until the contrary is proved, any document or minutes which purport to be the record of the proceedings of a [Municipality] or committee shall, if substantially made and signed in the manner prescribed for the making and signing of the record of such proceedings, be deemed to be a correct record of the proceedings, of a duly convened meeting held by a duly constituted [Municipality] or committee whereof all the members were duly qualified.

CHAPTER IV

² Subs by sec 5 of U.P.Act no 08 of 2011

thereupon the order of the [State Government] shall operate as if it had been a resolution only passed by the [Municipality] [under sub-section (2) of Section 134].

[130B. Pooling of receipts of taxes for certain purposes. - All moneys derived from water, drainage, scavenging and conservancy taxes mentioned in] ¹[clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of sub-section (1) and clause (vi) of sub-section (2)] of Section 128 and all other incomes derived from water-works and sullage farms and disposal of excrementitious and polluted matters collected from privies, urinals and cesspools shall be pooled together and shall be used for purposes connected with the construction, maintenance, extension or improvement of the water-works and drainage works and arrangements for scavenging and collection, removal and disposal of excrementitious and polluted matters from privies, urinals and cesspools including maintenance of sullage farms.

131. Framing of preliminary proposals. - (1) When a [Municipality] desires to impose a tax, it shall, by special resolution, frame proposal specifying, -

- (a) the tax, being one of the taxes described in ²[sub-section (2)] of Section 128, which it desires to impose;
- (b) the persons or class of persons to be made liable, and the description of property or other taxable things or circumstances in respect of which they are to be made liable, except where and in so far as any such class or description is already sufficiently defined under clause (a) or by this Act;
- (c) the amount or rate leviable from each such person or class of persons;
- (d) any other matter referred to in Section 153 which the [State Government] requires by rule to be specified.

(2) The [Municipality] shall also prepare a draft of the rules which it desires the [State Government] to make in respect of the matters, referred to in Section 153.

(3) The [Municipality] shall, thereupon publish in the manner prescribed in Section 94 the proposals framed under sub-section (1) and the draft rules framed under sub-section (2) along with a notice in the form set forth in Schedule III.

132. Procedure subsequent to framing proposals. - (1) Any inhabitant of the [Municipal area] may, within a fortnight from the publication of the said notice, submit to the [Municipality] an objection in writing to all or any of the proposals framed under the preceding section, and the [Municipality] shall take any objection so submitted into consideration and pass orders thereon by special resolution.

(2) If the [Municipality] decides to modify its proposals or any of them, it shall publish notified proposals and (if necessary) revised draft rules along with a notice indicating that the proposals and rules (if any) are in modification of proposals and rules previously published for objection :

[Provided that no such publication shall be necessary where the modification is confined to reduction in the amount or rate of the tax originally proposed.]

² Subs by sec 7 of U.P.Act no 08 of 2011

(3) Any objection which may be received to the modified proposals shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in sub-section (1).

(4) When the [Municipality] has finally settled its proposals it shall submit them along with the objections (if any) made in connection therewith to the [Prescribed Authority].

133. Power of State Government or [Prescribed Authority] to reject, sanction or modify proposals. - (1) ¹[Upon receipt of the proposals and objections under the preceding sections], the [Prescribed Authority] after considering the objection received under sub-section (4) of Section 132, may either refuse to sanction the proposals or return them to the [Municipality] for further consideration, or sanction them without modification or with such modification not involving an increase of the amount to be imposed, as it deems fit.

(2) In any other case, the [Prescribed Authority] shall submit the proposals and objections to the State Government, who may pass any of the orders desired in sub-section (1).

(3) [* * *]

134. Resolution of [Municipality] directing imposition of tax. - (1) When the proposals have been sanctioned by the Prescribed Authority or the State Government [* * *] the State Government, after taking into consideration the draft rules submitted by the [Municipality], shall proceed forthwith to make under Section 296 such rules in respect of tax as for the time being it considers necessary.

(2) When the rules have been made, the order of sanction and a copy of the rules shall be sent to the [Municipality], and thereupon the [Municipality] shall by special resolution direct the imposition of the tax with effect from a date to be specified in the resolution.

135. Imposition of tax. - (1) A copy of the resolution passed under Section 134 shall be submitted to the [State Government] if the tax has been sanctioned by the [State Government] and to the [Prescribed Authority] in any other case.

(2) Upon receipt of the copy of the resolutions the [State Government] or [Prescribed Authority] as the case may be, shall notify in the Official Gazette, the imposition of the tax from the appointed date, and the imposition of a tax shall in all cases be subject to the condition that it has been so notified.

(3) A notification of the imposition of a tax under sub-section (2) shall be conclusive proof that the tax has been imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

136. Procedure for altering taxes. - The procedure for abolishing a tax, or for altering a tax in respect of the matters specified in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 131, shall, so far as may be, the procedure prescribed by Sections 131 to 135 for the imposition of a tax.

137. Power of State Government to remedy or abolish tax. - (1) Whenever it appears, on complaint made or otherwise, to the [State Government], that the levy of any tax is contrary to the public interest or that any tax is unfair in its incidence the [State Government] may, after considering the explanation of [the municipality] concerned, by order require such [Municipality] to take measures, within a time to be specified in the order, for the removal of any defect which it considers to exist in the tax or in the method of assessing or collecting tax.

(2) Upon the failure or inability of the [Municipality] to comply, to the satisfaction of the [State Government], with an order made under sub-section (1), the [State Government] may by notification suspend the levy of the tax or of any portion thereof until the defect is removed, or may abolish or reduce the tax.

Consolidated Taxes

138. Consolidation of taxes. - (1) For the purposes of assessing, levying or collecting, but not for the purpose of imposing or granting exemption from, the taxes described in ¹[clauses (i) and (ii) of sub-section (1) and clause (vi) of sub-section (2)] of Section 128, a [Municipality] may consolidate any two or more of such taxes which are imposed upon buildings or lands or both.

(2) Provided that in any register or assessment list relating to a consolidated tax and used for the purpose of informing any person of his liability thereunder or for the purpose of securing compliance with the provision of Section 129 or 130, the [Municipality] shall apportion the consolidated tax amongst the several taxes comprised therein, so as to show approximately the amount assessed or collected on account of each separate tax.

139. Deduction required by exemptions. - (1) In assessing a consolidated tax, effect shall be given to any partial or total exemption from any single tax comprised therein.

(2) Such effect shall be given, -

(a) in the case of partial exemption, by means of the deduction from the total amount of the consolidated tax which would otherwise be leviable or assessable in respect of any buildings or lands or both to which the exemption applies, of a proportionate part, corresponding to the exemption, of the amount which might otherwise have been assessed on account of the single tax; and

(b) in the case of a total exemption, by means of the deduction from such total amount of the whole amount assessed, on account of the single tax.

Assessment and levy of taxes on the annual value of buildings or lands or both

²[140. Definition of annual value. - (1) "Annual Value" means -

(a) in the case of railway stations, colleges, schools, hotels, factories, commercial buildings and other non-residential buildings, twelve times the value arrived at on multiplying with multiplier to be fixed by rules in the monthly rate of rent per square foot of residential buildings fixed under clause (b) with the covered area of the buildings or open area of the land or both, as the case may be.

(b) in the case of a building or land not falling within the provisions of clause (a), twelve times the value arrived at on multiplying the carpet area of the building, or the area of the land, by the applicable minimum monthly rate of rent per square foot of the carpet area in the case of building or the applicable minimum monthly rate of rent per square foot of the area in the case of land, as the case may be, and for this purpose the minimum monthly rate of rent per square foot shall be such as may be fixed once in every two years by the executive officer of the Municipality on the basis of the location of the building or the land, nature of the construction of the building, the circle rate fixed by the Collector for the purpose of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 and the current minimum rate of rent in the area for such building or land and such other factors, and in such manner, as may be prescribed :

Provided that where the annual value of any building would, by reason of exceptional circumstances, in the opinion of the Municipality, be excessive if calculated in the aforesaid manner, the Municipality may fix the annual value at any less amount which appears to it equitable.

Explanation I. - For the purpose of calculation of annual value the carpet area shall be calculated as under :

- (i) Rooms-full measurement of internal dimension;
- (ii) Covered Verandah-full measurement of internal dimension;
- (iii) Balcony, Corridor, Kitchen and Store-50 per cent measurement of internal dimension;
- (iv) Garage-one-fourth measurement of internal dimension;
- (v) Area covered by bathroom, latrines, portico and staircase shall not form part of the carpet area.

Explanation II. - The standard rent, the agreed rent or the reasonable annual rent of a building for the purposes of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972 shall not be taken into account while calculating the annual value of the building.

(2) Where the Municipality so resolves, the annual value for the purpose of assessment of property taxes shall -

- (a) in the case of land and owner-occupied residential building which is not more than ten years old, be deemed to be 25 per cent less and if it is more than ten years but not more than twenty years old, be deemed to be 32.5 percent less, and if it is more than twenty years old, be deemed to be 40 per cent less than the annual value determined under clause (b) of sub-section (1); and
- (b) in the case of residential building let on rent, which is not more then ten year old, be deemed to be 25 per cent more and if it is more than ten years but not more than twenty years old, be deemed to be 12.5 per cent more than the annual value determined under clause (b) of sub-section (1), and if it is more than twenty years old, be deemed to be equal to the annual value determined under clause (b) of sub-section (1).”]

141A. Option to deposit a tax on the annual value of building or land or of both by self assessment. - Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provision of this Act, the owner or occupier primarily liable for payment of tax in respect of a building may himself assess every year his liability regarding the amount of property tax payable by him and in doing so he may himself determine the annual value of the building in accordance with the provisions of Section 140, and deposit the tax so assessed by him in such manner, together with a statement of such self-assessment, in such form as may be prescribed.

141B. Submission of the details of houses or lands for assessment of tax. - (1) For the purposes of annual rental value, the owner or the occupier of every house or land shall submit a return thereof upto a date as may be prescribed.

(2) Any person failing to submit the return referred to in sub-section (1) without proper reasons shall be liable to pay penalty as may be prescribed.

(3) The penalty referred to in sub-section (2) may be compounded by the Executive Officer.”]

¹[“142. Publication of list. - The Municipality or the Executive Officer authorized by it in this behalf shall publish the list prepared under Section 141 in accordance with the manner prescribed in the rules.”]

²[“143. Objections on proposed rates and list. - The Municipality or the Executive Officer authorised by it in this behalf shall dispose off the objections in accordance with the manner prescribed in the rules.”]

³[“144. Authentication and custody of list. - (1) The Executive Officer or an officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall authenticate by his signature the areawise rental rates and the assessment list of the municipal area or any part thereof, as the case may be.

(2) Every list so authenticated shall be deposited in the office of the Municipality.

(3) As soon as the list for the entire municipal area is so deposited it shall be declared by public notice to be open for inspection.”]

145. Revision and duration of list. - (1) A new assessment list shall ordinarily be prepared in the manner prescribed by Sections 141 to 144, once in every five years.

(2) Subject to any alteration or amendment made under Section 147 and to the result of any appeal under Section 160, every valuation and assessment entered in a valuation list shall be valid from the date on which the list takes effect [in the] [municipal area] or part thereof and until the first day of the month next following the completion of the new list.

[145A. Adoption of value of property determined under U.P. Act XII of 1962. - Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act the] [Municipality] may by special resolution decide that the taxable value of buildings and lands determined under clause (ii) of Section 4 of the Uttar Pradesh (Nagar Khsettra) Bhumi Aur Bhawan Kar Adhiniyam, 1962, shall be the annual value for the purpose of this Act.

146. Conclusiveness of entries in list. - An entry in an assessment list shall be conclusive proof,

- (a) for any purpose connected with a tax to which the list refers, of the amount leviable in respect of any building or land during the period to which the list relates; and
- (b) for the purpose of assessing any other municipal tax, of the annual value of any building or land during the said period.

147. Amendment and alteration of list. - (1) The ¹[Municipality or the Executive Officer authorised by it] may at any time alter or amend the assessment list, -

- (a) by entering therein the name of any person or any property which ought to have been entered or any property which has become liable to taxation after the authentication of the assessment list; or
- (b) by substituting therein for the name of owner or occupier of any property the name of any other person who has succeeded by transfer or otherwise to the ownership or occupation of the property; or
- (c) by enhancing the valuation of, or assessment on any property which [has become incorrectly valued or assessed or which, by reason of fraud, misrepresentation or mistake, has been incorrectly valued or assessed]; or
- (d) by re-valuing or re-assessing any property the value of which has been increased by additions or alterations to buildings; or
- (e) where the percentage on the annual value at which any tax is to be levied has been altered by the [Municipality or the Executive Officer authorised by it] under the provisions of Section 136, by making a corresponding alteration in the amount of the tax payable in each case; or
- (f) by reducing, upon the application of the owner- or on satisfactory evidence that the owner is traceable and the need for reduction established, upon its own initiative, the valuation of any building which has been wholly or partly demolished or destroyed, or
- (g) by correcting any [Clerical, arithmetical or other apparent error ;]

(2)- Provided that [Municipality or the Executive Officer authorised by it] shall give at least one month's notice to any person interested of any alteration which the [Municipality or the Executive Officer authorised by it] proposes to make under clauses (a), (b), (c) or (d) of sub-section (1) and of the date on which the alteration will be made.

(3) The provisions on sub-sections(2) and(3) of Section 143 applicable to the obligations thereunder mentioned shall, so far as may be, apply to any objection made in pursuance of a notice issued under sub-section (2) and to any application made under clause (f) of sub-section (1).

(4) Every alteration made under sub-section (1) shall be authenticated by the signature or signatures of the person or persons authorized by Section 144 and subject to the result of an appeal under Section 160, shall take effect from the date on which the next instalment falls due.

148. Obligation to supply information for purposes of amendment. - (1) When a building is built, rebuilt or enlarged, the owner shall give notice thereof to the [Municipality] within fifteen days from the date of completion of such building, rebuilding or enlargement or from the date of the occupation of such building, whichever date happens first.

(2) Any person failing to give the notice required by sub-section (1) shall be punished upon conviction with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees or ten times the amount of the tax payable on the said building or enlargement for a period of three months, whichever is greater.

149. Liability for payment of certain taxes on annual value. - (1) [Except when otherwise provided by rule], every tax [other than a scavenging tax or tax for the cleansing of latrines and privies] on the annual value of buildings or lands or of both shall be leviable primarily from the actual occupier of the property upon which the said taxes are assessed, if he is the owner of the buildings or lands or holds them on a building or other lease from the [Government] or from the [Municipality], or on a building or lease from any person.

(2) In any other case the tax shall be primarily leviable as follows, namely, -

- (a) if the property is let, from the lessor;
- (b) if the property is sublet, from the superior lessor;
- (c) if the property is unlet, from the person in whom the right to let the same vests.

(3) On failure to recover any sum due to account of such tax from the person primarily liable, the ¹[Municipality or the Executive Officer authorised by it] may recover from the occupier of any part of the buildings or lands in respect of which it is due, that portion thereof which bears to the whole amounts due the same ratio as the rent annually payable by such occupier bears to the aggregate amount of rent payable in respect of the whole of the said buildings or lands, or to the aggregate amount of the letting value thereof in the authenticated assessment list.

(4) An occupier who makes any payments for which he is not primarily liable under the foregoing provisions, shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be entitled to be reimbursed by the person primarily liable.

150. Liability for payment of other such taxes. - (1) A scavenging tax, or a tax for the cleansing of latrines and privies, on the annual value of buildings or lands or of both, shall be levied from the actual occupier of the property upon which the taxes are assessed.

(2) Provided that, where such property is let to more occupiers than one, the [Municipality] may at its option levy the tax from the lessor instead of from the actual occupiers.

(3) A lessor from whom a tax is levied under sub-section (2) may, in the absence of a contract to the contrary, recover the tax from any or all of the actual occupiers.

151. Remission by reason of non-occupation. - (1) In a [municipal area] other than one situated wholly or partly in a hilly tract, when a building or land has remained vacant and unproductive of rent for ninety or more consecutive days during any year the [Municipality] shall remit or refund so much of the tax of that year as may be proportionate to the number of days that the said building or land has remained vacant and unproductive of rent.

(2) When in any such [municipal area] a building consists of separate tenements one, or more than one, of which has remained vacant and unproductive of rent for any such period as aforesaid, the [Municipality] may remit or refund such portion (if any) of the tax or instalment as is prescribed by rule.

(3) Provided that no remission shall be granted unless notice in writing of the fact of the building or land being vacant and unproductive of rent has been given to the [Municipality], and that no remission or refund shall take effect for any period previous to the day of the delivery of such notice.

(4) The burden of proving the facts entitling a person to relief under this section shall be upon him.

(5) For the purposes of this section a building or land shall not be deemed vacant, if maintained as a pleasure resort or town or country house, or be deemed unproductive of rent, if let to a tenant who has a continuing right of occupation thereof, whether he is in actual occupation or not.

152. Obligation to give notice of re-occupation. - (1) The owner of a building or land for which a remission or refund of the tax [has been applied for, or given] under the last preceding section, shall give notice of the re-occupation of such building or land within fifteen days of such re-occupation.

(2) Any owner failing to give the notice required by sub-section (1) shall be punished upon conviction with a fine which shall not be less than twice the amount of tax payable on such building or land for the period during which it has been re-occupied without notice, and which may extend to fifty rupees or to ten times the amount of the said tax, whichever sum is the greater.

Collection, composition, exemption and other matters relating to taxation

153. Rules as to assessment, collection and other matters. - The following matters shall be regulated and governed by rules except in so far as provision therefor is made by this Act, namely, -

- (a) the assessment, collection or composition of taxes [* * *],
- (b) the prevention of evasion of taxes;
- (c) the system on which refunds shall be allowed and paid;
- (d) the fees for notices demanding payments on account of a tax and for the execution of warrants of distress;
- (e) the rates to be charged for maintaining live-stock distrained; and
- (f) any other matter relating to taxes in respect of which this Act makes no provision or insufficient provision and provision is, in the opinion of the [State Government], necessary.

155. [* * *]

155A. [* * *]

156. Composition. - (1) Subject to the provisions of any rule, a [Municipality] may by a special resolution confirmed by the [Prescribed Authority] provide that all or any persons may be allowed to compound for a tax.

(2) Every sum due by reason of the composition of a tax under sub-section (1) shall be recoverable in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

157. Exemption. - (1) A [Municipality] may exempt, for a period not exceeding one year, from the payment of a tax, or any portion of a tax, imposed under this Act any person who is in its opinion, by reason of poverty, unable to pay the same, and may renew such exemption as often as it deems necessary.

(2) A [Municipality] may, by a special resolution confirmed by the [Prescribed Authority], exempt from the payment of tax, or any portion of a tax, imposed under this Act any person or class of persons or any property or description of property.

(3) The [State Government] may, by order, exempt from payment of tax, or any portion of a tax, imposed under this Act any person or class of persons or any property or description of property.

158. Obligation to disclose liability. - [(1) The] [Municipality] or any Assessing Authority under this Act may by written communication call upon an inhabitant of the [municipal area] to furnish such information or produce such records, books of account and documents as may be necessary in order to ascertain, -

(a) whether such inhabitant is liable to pay a tax imposed under this Act;

(b) at what amount he should be assessed;

(c) the annual value of the building or land which he occupies and the name and address of the owner.

[(2) If an inhabitant so called upon to furnish information or to produce records, books of account or documents, omits to furnish or produce the same or, if furnished or produced, the same appear to the] [Municipality] or the Assessing Authority to be incorrect or incomplete, the [Municipality] or the Assessing Authority, as the case may be, shall after making such enquiry as it considers necessary make the assessment to the best of its judgment.

159. Powers of discovery. - Subject to the conditions and restrictions specified in sub-section (2) of Section 287, the [President], the executive officer and, if authorized in this behalf by resolution, any other member, officer or servant of the [Municipality] may enter, inspect and measure a building for the purposes of valuation, or enter and inspect a stable, coach house or other place wherein there is reason to believe that there is a vehicle or animal liable to taxation under this Act.

[159A. Rounding off of figures. - In computing the amount of any tax under this Act a fraction of a rupee less than five paise or which is not a multiple of five paise shall be rounded off to five paise or to the next higher multiple of five paise as the case may be.]

Appeal against taxation

160. Appeals relating to taxation. - (1) In the case of a tax assessed upon the annual value of buildings or lands or both an appeal against an order passed under sub-section (3) of Section 143 or under sub-section (3) of Section 147, and, in the case of any other tax, an appeal against an assessment, or any alteration of an assessment, may be made the District Magistrate or to such other officer as may be empowered by the [State Government] in this behalf.

(2) [* * *]

161. Limitation and preliminary deposit of tax claimed. - No such appeal shall be heard and determined unless, -

(a) the appeal is in the case of a tax assessed on the annual value of buildings or lands or both, brought within thirty days next after the date of communication of the order (exclusive of the time requisite for obtaining a copy thereof) and, in the case of any other tax, within thirty days next after the date of the receipt of the notice of assessment or of alteration of assessment or, if no notice has been given, within thirty days next after the date of the first demand under the assessment or alteration of assessment; and

(b) the amount claimed from the appellant has been deposited by him in the municipal office.

162. Reference to High Court - (1) If, during the hearing of an appeal under Section 160, a question as to the liability to, or the principle of assessment of, a tax arises on which the officer hearing the appeal entertains reasonable doubt, he may, either of his own motion or on the application of a person interested, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement with his own opinion on the point for the decision of the High Court.

(2) On reference being made under sub-section (1), the subsequent proceedings in the case shall be, as nearly as may be, in conformity with the rules relating to references to the High Court contained in Order XLVI of the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), or such other rules as are made by the High Court under Section 122 of that Code.

163. Costs. - (1) In every appeal the costs shall be in the discretion of the officer deciding the appeal.

(2) Costs awarded under this section to the [Municipality] shall be recoverable by the [Municipality] in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

(3) In the [Municipality] fails to pay costs awarded to an appellant within ten days after the date of the communication to the [Municipality] of the order or payment thereof, the officer awarding the costs may order the persons having the custody of the balance of the municipal fund to pay the amount.

164. Bar to jurisdiction of civil and criminal courts in matters of taxation. - (1) No objection shall be taken to a valuation or assessment, nor shall the liability of a person to be assessed or taxed by questioned in any other manner or by any other authority than is provided in this Act.

(2) The order of the Appellate Authority confirming, setting aside or modifying any order in respect of valuation or assessment or liability to assessment or taxation shall be final; provided that it shall be lawful for the Appellate Authority, [upon application made within three months from the date of its original order on its own motion, to review an order passed by it in appeal by a further order; provided further that no order shall be reviewed by the Appellate Authority on its own motion beyond three months from its date].

Formal defects in assessment and demands

165. Savings. - No assessment list or other list, notice, bill or other such document specifying, or purporting to specify, with reference to any tax, charge, rent or fee, any person, property, thing or circumstance shall be invalid by reason only of a mistake in the name, residence, place of business or occupation of the person, or in the description of the ¹property, thing or circumstance, or by reason of any mere clerical error or defect of form, and it shall be sufficient that the person, property, thing or circumstance is described sufficiently for the purpose of identification, and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier of any property liable in respect of a tax.

CHAPTER VI Recovery Of Certain Municipal Claims

166. Presentation of bill. - (1) As soon as a person becomes liable for the payment of, -

- (a) any sum on account of tax, other than [any tax] payable upon immediate demand, or
- (b) any sum payable under clause (c) of Section 196 or Section 229 or Section 230 in respect of the supply of water, or payable in respect of any other municipal service or undertaking, or
- (c) any other sum declared by this Act or by rule [or bye-law] to be recoverable in the manner provided by this chapter, the [Municipality] shall, with all convenient speed cause a bill to be prescribed to the persons so liable.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by rule, a person shall be deemed to become liable for the payment of every tax and licence fee upon the commencement of the period in respect of which such tax or fee is payable.

167. Contents of bill. - Every such bill shall specify, -

- (a) the period for which, and the property, occupation, circumstances or thing in respect of which the sum is claimed, and
- (b) the liability or penalty enforceable in default of payment, and
- (c) the time (if any) within which an appeal may be referred as provided in Section 161.

168. Notice of demand. - If the sum for which a bill has been presented as aforesaid is not paid into the municipal office or to a person empowered by a regulation to receive such payments, within fifteen days from the presentation thereof, the [Municipality] may cause to be served upon the person liable for the payment of the said sum a notice of demand in the form set forth in Schedule IV, or to the like effect.

169. Issue of warrant. - (1) If the person liable for the payment of the said sum does not, within fifteen days from the service of such notice of demand either, -

(a) pay the sum demanded in the notice, or

(b) show cause to the satisfaction of the [Municipality] or of such officer as the [Municipality] by regulation may appoint in this behalf, or, where there is an executive officer, of the executive officer, as the case may be, why he should not pay the same, such sum with all costs of the recovery may be recovered under a warrant caused to be issued by the [Municipality] in the form of Schedule V, or to the like effect, by distress and sale of the movable property of the defaulter.

(2) Every warrant issued under this section shall be signed by the [President] of the [Municipality], or by an officer to whom the [Municipality] has delegated its power by regulation or by the executive officer, if any.

170. Forcible entry for purpose of executing warrant. - (1) It shall be lawful for a municipal officer to whom a warrant issued under Section 169 is addressed, to break open, at any time between sunrise and sunset any outer or inner door or window of a building, in order to make the distress directed in the warrant, in the following circumstances and not otherwise, -

(a) if the warrant contains a special order authorizing him in this behalf, and

(b) if he has reasonable grounds for believing that the building contains property which is liable to seizure under the warrant, and

(c) if, after notifying his authority and purpose and duly demanding admittance, he cannot otherwise obtain admittance.

(2) Provided that such officer shall not enter or break open the door of an apartment appropriated for women, until he has given any women therein an opportunity to withdraw.

171. Manner of executing warrant. - (1) It shall also be lawful for such officer to distrain, wherever it may be found any movable property of the person therein named as defaulter, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) The following property shall not be distrained -

(a) the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the defaulter, his wife, and children;

(b) the tools of artisans;

(c) books of account;

(d) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed grain, and such cattle as may be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood.

(3) The distress shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible equal in value to the amount recoverable under the warrant, and if any article have been distrained which, in the opinion of a person authorized by or under sub-section (2) of Section 169 to sign a warrant, should not have been so distrained, they shall forthwith be returned.

(4) The officer shall on seizing the property forthwith make an inventory thereof, and shall before removing the same give to the person in possession thereof at the time of seizure a written notice in the form of Schedule VI that the said property will be sold as shall be specified in such notice.

172. Sale of goods under warrant, and application of proceeds. - (1) When the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay or when the expense of keeping it in custody together with the amount to be recovered is likely to exceed its value, the [President] or other officer by whom the warrant was signed, shall at once give notice to the person in whose possession the property was seized to the effect that it will be sold at once, and shall sell it accordingly unless the amount named in the warrant be forthwith paid.

(2) If not sold at once under sub-section (1), the property seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, may, on the expiration of the time specified in the notice served by the officer executing the warrant, be sold by public auction under the orders of the [Municipality], unless the warrant is suspended by the person who signed it or the sum due from the defaulter is paid together with all costs incidental to the notice, warrant and distress and detention of the property.

(3) The surplus, if any, shall be forthwith credited to the municipal fund, notice of such credit being given at the same time to the person from whose possession the property was taken, but, if the same be claimed by written application to the [Municipality] within one year from the date of the notice, a refund thereof shall be made to such person. Any sum not claimed-within one year from the date of such notice shall be the property of the [Municipality].

173. Procedure in case of execution against property outside [municipal area]. - (1) If no sufficient movable property belonging to a defaulter of being upon the premises, in respect of which he is assessed, can be found within the [municipal area], the District Magistrate may, on the application of the [Municipality], issue his warrant to an officer of his Court, -

(a) for the distress and sale of any movable property or effects belonging to the defaulter within any other part of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate, or

(b) for the distress and sale of any movable property belonging to the defaulter within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate exercising jurisdiction within Uttar Pradesh.

(2) In the case of action being taken under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the other Magistrate shall endorse the warrant so issued, and cause it to be executed, and any amount recovered to be remitted to the Magistrate issuing the warrant, who shall remit the same to the [Municipality].

[173A. Recovery of taxes as arrears of land revenue. - (1) Where any sum is due on account of a tax, other than] [any tax] payable upon immediate demand, from a person to a [Municipality], the [Municipality] may without prejudice to any other mode of recovery apply to the Collector to recover such sum together with costs of the proceedings as if it were an arrear of a land revenue.

(2) The Collector on being satisfied that the sum is due shall proceed to recover it is an arrear of land revenue.

174. Fees and costs. - Fees for, -

(a) every notice issued under Section 168;

(b) every distress made under Section 171; and

(c) the costs of maintaining any live stock seized under the said section; shall be chargeable at the rates respectively specified in such behalf in rules made by the [State Government], and shall be included in the costs of recovery to be levied under Section 169.

175. Savings. - No distress or sale made under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any person making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any error, defect or want of form in the bill, notice, warrant of distress, inventory or other proceeding relating thereto.

176. Alternative power of bringing suit. - Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, of in case of failure to realize thereby the whole or any part of the demand, the [Municipality] may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

177. Liability of immovable property for taxes. - All sums due on account of a tax imposed on the annual value of buildings or lands or of both shall, subject to the prior payment of the land revenue (if any) due to the Government thereupon, be a first charge upon such buildings or lands.

CHAPTER VII

a person shall give notice of his intention to the [Municipality].

(2) The notice referred to in sub-section (1) as required in the case of a building shall only be necessary where the building, abuts on, or is adjacent to, a public street or place, or property vested in Government, or in the [Municipality], unless, by a bye-law applicable to the area in which the building is situated, the necessity of giving notice is extended to all buildings.

(3) An alteration in a building shall, for the purposes of this chapter and of any bye-law, be deemed to be material, if, -

- (a) it affects or is likely to affect pre-judicially the stability or safety of the building or the condition of the building in respect of drainage, ventilation, sanitation or hygiene, or
- (b) it increases or diminishes the height of, area covered by or cubical capacity of the building or reduces the cubical capacity of any room in the building below the minimum prescribed in any bye-law, or
- (c) it converts into a place for human habitation a building or part of a building originally constructed for other purposes, or
- (d) it is an alteration declared by a bye-law made in this behalf to be a material alteration.

179. Plans and specifications required to validate notice. - (1) Where a bye-law has been made prescribing and requiring any information and plan in addition to a notice, no notice under Section 178 shall be considered to be valid until the information, if any, required by such bye-law has been furnished to the satisfaction of the [Municipality].

(2) In any other case, the [Municipality] may, within one week of the receipt of the notice required by Section 178, require a person who has given such notice to furnish a plan and specification of any existing or proposed building, or part of a building, or well together with a site plan of the land, with such reasonable details as the [Municipality] may prescribe in its requisition, and in such case, the notice shall not be considered to be valid until such plans and specification have been furnished to the satisfaction of the [Municipality].

180. Sanction of work by [Municipality]. - (1) Subject to the provisions of any bye-law the [Municipality] may either refuse to sanction any work of which notice has been given under Section 178 or may sanction it absolutely or subject to, -

(a) any written directions that the [Municipality] deems fit to issue in respect of all or any of the matters mentioned in sub-head (h) of heading A of Section 298, or

(b) a written direction requiring the set-back of the building or part of a building to the regular line of the street prescribed under Section 222, or, in default of any regular line prescribed under that Section, to the line of frontage of any neighbouring building or buildings.

(2) In the case of refusal to sanction under sub-section (1), the [Municipality] shall communicate in writing the reasons for such refusal to the person giving notice under Section 178.

(3) Should the [Municipality] neglect or omit for one month after the receipt of a valid notice under Section 178 to make and deliver to the person who has given such notice an order of the nature specified in sub-section (1) in respect thereof, such person may by a written communication call the attention of the [Municipality] to the omission of neglect, and, if such omission or neglect continues for a further period of fifteen days, the [Municipality] shall be deemed to have sanctioned the proposed work absolutely.

(4) Provided that nothing in sub-section (3) shall be construed to authorise any person to act in contravention of this Act or of any bye-law.

[(5) No person shall commence any work of which notice has been given under Section 178 until sanction has been given or deemed to have been given under this section.]

[(6) The] [Municipality] may within six months cancel or modify a sanction granted by it under sub-section (1) if it is found that the sanction was secured through fraud or misrepresentation and any work done thereunder shall be deemed to have been done without such sanction :

Provided that before cancelling or modifying any sanction, the [Municipality] shall give a reasonable opportunity to the party concerned of being heard.

180A. Restriction on the power of a [Municipality] to sanction construction of a place of entertainment in certain cases. - Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or any bye-law made thereunder, the construction of, or any addition to any building of public entertainment or any addition thereto, shall not, except with the previous approval of the State Government, be sanctioned by a [Municipality], if the site of, or proposed for such building is, -

(a) within a radius of one furlong from -

- (i) any residential institution attached to a recognized educational institution such a college, a high school or girls' school, or

- (b) in any thickly populated residential area which is either exclusively residential or reserved or used generally for residential as distinguished from business purposes; or
- (c) in any area reserved for residential purposes by any housing or planning scheme or otherwise under any enactment :

Provided that no permission to construct any building intended to be used for cinematograph exhibition shall be given unless the [Municipality] is satisfied that sanction to the plans and specifications have been obtained in accordance with the rules framed under the Cinematograph Act, 1918.

181. Duration of sanction. - (1) A sanction given or deemed to have been given by a [Municipality] under [Section 180] shall be available for one year or for such lesser period as may be prescribed by bye-law [unless it is extended by the] [Municipality] for a further period up to one year.

(2) After the expiry of the said period the proposed work may not be commenced except in pursuance of a fresh sanction applied for and granted under the [same] section.

182. inspection of works requiring sanction. - The [President], the executive officer and if authorised in this behalf by resolution any other member, officer or servant of the [Municipality] may, at any time and without warning inspect any work in respect of which notice is required under Section 178, -

(a) while under construction, or

(b) within one month of the receipt of a report that it has been completed or, in default of such report, any time after completion.

183. Compensation for damage sustained through order passed under Section 180. -

Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 125, a person giving notice under Section 178, shall not be entitled to any compensation for damage or loss sustained by reason of an order passed by a [Municipality] under Section 180, unless, -

(a) the order is passed on some ground other than the proposed work would contravene a bye-law or be prejudicial to the health or safety of the public or any person, or

(b) the order contains a direction of the nature specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 180, or

(c) the order is an order of refusal to sanction the re-erection of a building on the ground that it is unsuitable in plan or design to the locality, or is intended for a purpose unsuitable to the locality, or contravenes a bye-law under sub-head (f) of heading A of Section 298.

184. Effect of sanction under Section 180. - (1) A sanction given or deemed to have been given under Section 180 shall not, beyond exempting the person to whom the sanction is given or deemed to have been given from any penalty or consequence to which he would otherwise be liable under Sections 185, 186 or 222, confer or extinguish any right or disability, or operate as an estoppel or admission or affect any title to property or have any other legal effect whatsoever.

(2) In particular such sanction shall not operate to relieve any person from the obligation imposed by Section 209 to obtain separate sanction for any structure referred to therein.

185. Illegal erection or alteration of a building. - Whoever begins, continues or completes the erection or re-erection of, or any material alteration in a building or part of a building or the construction or enlargement of a well, without giving the notice required by Section 178, or in contravention [of the provisions of Section 180, sub-section (5) or], of an order of the [Municipality] refusing sanction or any written directions made by the [Municipality] under Section 180 or any bye-law, shall be liable upon conviction to a fine which may extend to [one thousand rupees but which, in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be mentioned in the judgment of the Court, shall not be less than two hundred and fifty rupees].

186. Power of [Municipality] to stop erection and to demolish building erected. - The [Municipality] may at any time by written notice direct the owner or occupier of any land to stop the erection, re-erection or alteration of a building or part of a building or the construction or enlargement of a well thereon in any case where the [Municipality] considers that such erection, re-erection, alteration, construction or enlargement is an offence under Section 185 and may, in like manner, direct the alteration or demolition as it deems necessary of the building, part of a building, or the well, as the case may be.

Extinction of fire

187. Establishment and maintenance of fire-brigade. - The [Municipality] may establish and maintain a fire-brigade and may provide any implements, machinery, or means of communicating intelligence which it thinks necessary for the prevention and extinction of fire.

188. Power of fire-brigade and other persons for suppression of fires. - (1) On the occasion of a fire in a [municipal area] any Magistrate, any member of the [Municipality], the executive officer, the engineer or a secretary of the [Municipality], or any member of the fire-brigade directing its operations and (if required so to do by a Magistrate, a member of the [Municipality], the executive officer, the engineer or a secretary of the [Municipality]), any police officer above the rank of constable, may, -

- (a) remove, or order the removal of any person who by his presence interferes with or impedes the operations for extinguishing the fire or for saving life or property;
- (b) close any street or passage in or near which a fire is burning;
- (c) for the purpose of extinguishing the fire, break into or through or pull down, or cause to be broken into or through or pulled down or used for the passage of hoses or other appliances any premises;
- (d) cause mains and pipes to be shut off as to give greater pressure of water in or near the place where the fire has occurred;
- (e) call out the person in-charge of a fire-engine to render such assistance as may be possible; and

- (f) generally take such measures as may appear necessary for the preservation of life or property.
- (2) No person shall be liable to pay damages for an act done by him under sub-section (1) in good faith.
- (3) Any damage done in the exercise of a power conferred for a duty imposed by this section shall be deemed to be damaged by fire within the meaning of a policy of insurance against fire.

Public drains

189. Construction of public drains. - (1) The [Municipality] may construct, within, or, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 120, outside the [municipal area], such drain as it thinks necessary for keeping the [municipal area] properly cleansed and drained and carry such drains through, across or under any street or place, and after reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through or under any buildings or land.

(2) Provided that no drain shall be constructed within the limits of a cantonment without the approval of the [State Government] and otherwise than with the concurrence of the General Officer Commanding of the division in which such cantonment is situate or, in the event of such concurrence being withheld, the previous sanction of the [Central Government].

190. Alteration of public drains. - (1) The [Municipality] may, from time to time, enlarge, lessen, alter the course of, cover in or otherwise improve a public drain and may discontinue, close up or remove any such drain.

(2) The exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (1) shall be subject to the condition that the [Municipality] shall provide another and equally effective drain in place of any existing drain of the use of which any person is deprived by the exercise of the said power.

191. Use of public drains by private owners. - (1) The owner or occupier of a building or land within the [municipal area] shall be entitled to cause his drains to empty into the drains of the [Municipality], provided that he first obtains the written permission of the [Municipality], and that he complies with such conditions consistent with any bye-law as the [Municipality] prescribes as to the mode in which, and the superintendence under which the communications are to be made between drains not vested in the [Municipality] and drains which are so vested.

(2) Whoever, without the written permission of the [Municipality] or in contravention of any bye-law or of any direction or condition made or imposed under sub-section (1), makes or causes to be made or alters or causes to be altered, a connection of a drain belonging to himself or to some other person with a drain vested in the [Municipality], shall be liable upon conviction to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and the [Municipality] may by written notice require such person to close, demolish, alter, remake or otherwise deal with such connection as it deems fit.

192. Power of [Municipality] to enforce drainage connection with public drains. - (1) When a building or land situated within one hundred feet of a public drain is at any time not drained to the satisfaction of the [Municipality] by any or a sufficient drainage connection with such drain the [Municipality] may, by notice require the owner or occupier of such building or land to make and maintain a drainage connection with the drain in such manner as the [Municipality], subject to the provisions of any bye-law directs.

(2) The provisions of Sections 306 to 312 (inclusive) shall apply to default in compliance with any such requisition, notwithstanding that part of the land through which the said drainage connection is required to pass may not belong to the person so making default, unless he shall prove that the default was caused by the act of the owner or occupier of such last mentioned land, and he has made application to the [Municipality] under Section 193.

193. Power of private person to carry a drain through the land of another person. - (1) Any person desiring that an existing or proposed drain on his land shall be carried through or under the building or land, or connected with the drain, of another person owning a building or land abutting on, or a drain connected with a municipal drain may apply to the [Municipality].

(2) The [Municipality] on receiving an application under sub-section (1) may call upon the other person to show cause, within specified period, why the applicant's drain should not be carried through or under his building or land or connected with his drain.

(3) The [Municipality] shall hear any objection made by such person if submitted within the specified period, and thereafter, if it considers that the drain or drainage connection shall be made, shall record and order to this effect.

(4) The order shall set out in writing, -

(a) the period within which the parties shall come to an agreement as to the construction of the drain or drainage connection;

(b) the period within which the drain or drainage connection shall be made;

(c) the respective responsibilities on the parties concerned for the maintenance, repair and cleansing of the drain or drainage connection when made; and

(d) the sum (if any) payable, whether in the form of rent or otherwise, by the person making the application to the owner of the land, building or drain, as the case may be.

(5) If the sum awarded under clause (d) of sub-section (4) takes the form of a lump payment, the [Municipality] may recover it in the manner provided by Chapter VI and pay any sum recovered to the person to whom it is due. If a rent has been awarded, the person to whom it is due may recover it by suit in any civil court having jurisdiction.

(6) If the parties concerned fail to agree within the period specified in the order, or if the drain or drainage connection is not constructed within the period specified for its construction, the [Municipality] may itself construct it and may recover the cost from the applicant in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

194. Right of owner to divert drain on his land. - The owner of any land into, through or under which a drain has been carried under the provisions of the preceding section may, at any time, with the written permission of the [Municipality] and subject to such conditions as the [Municipality] impose, divert the drain at his own expense.

Scavenging and cleansing

195. Definition of house-scavenging. - House-scavenging means the removal of filth, rubbish, odour or other offensive matter from the dust-bin, privy, cesspool or other receptacle for such matter in or pertaining to a house or a building.

196. Adoption and relinquishment by [Municipality] of house-scavenging, etc. - Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained with respect to the rights of customary sweepers and of agriculturists, the [Municipality] may, -

- (a) by public notice, undertake the house-scavenging of any houses or buildings or the [collection, removal and disposal of excrementitious and polluted matter from privies, urinals and cesspools] in the [municipal area] from a date not less than two months after issue of the notice;
- (b) after giving, by public notice or otherwise not less than two months notice to the parties concerned, relinquish an undertaking under clause (a);
- (c) on the application or with the consent of the occupier, at any time undertake the house-scavenging of a house or building or the [collection, removal and disposal of excrementitious and polluted matter from privies, urinals and cesspools] in any building or on any land or the removal of other offensive matter or rubbish from a building or land, on terms to be fixed by bye-law in this behalf; and
- (d) after giving not less than two months notice to the occupier, relinquish an undertaking under clause (c).

197. Objections to adoption. - (1) The occupier of a house or building affected by a notice issued under clause (a) of Section 196 may at any time after the issue thereof, apply to the [Municipality] to exclude that house or building from the notice.

(2) The [Municipality] shall consider and pass orders upon such application within six weeks of the receipt thereof, and may by such order exclude such house or building from the notice.

(3) In deciding whether to exclude a house or building from the notice, the [Municipality] shall consider, among other matters, the efficiency of the arrangements for house-scavenging made by the occupier.

198. Continuance of house-scavenging once adopted by [Municipality]. - When the [Municipality] has undertaken the house-scavenging of a house or building under Section 196, it may continue to perform such house-scavenging with or without the consent of the occupier for the time being of such house or building.

199. Powers of municipal servants for house-scavenging. - The servants of the [Municipality] employed in house-scavenging may, at all reasonable times, do all things necessary for the proper performance of any house-scavenging undertaken by the [Municipality].

200. Savings in favour of customary sweepers and of agriculturists. - Notwithstanding anything in Section 196, the [Municipality] shall not, except in accordance with the provisions of Sections 201 and 202, -

- (a) undertake the house-scavenging of a house or building in respect whereof a sweeper has a customary right to do such house-scavenging without the consent of the sweeper; or
- (b) undertake the house-scavenging of a house or building occupied by an agriculturist who himself cultivates a land within [municipal area] or in a village coterminous therewith without the consent of the occupier.

201. Punishment of customary sweepers for negligence. - (1) Should a sweeper who has a customary right to do the house-scavenging of a house or building (hereinafter called the customary sweeper) fail to perform such house-scavenging in a proper way the occupier of the house or building or the [Municipality] may complain to a Magistrate.

(2) The Magistrate receiving such complaint shall hold an enquiry, and, should it appear to him that the customary sweeper has failed to perform the house-scavenging of the house or building in a proper way or at reasonable intervals, he may impose upon such sweeper a fine which may extend to ten rupees, and upon a second or any later conviction in regard to the same house or building may also direct the right of the customary sweeper to do the house-scavenging of the house or building to be forfeited, and thereupon such right shall be forfeited [:]

[Provided that the Magistrate may at any stage during the pendency of the case under this sub-section authorise the] [Municipality] to undertake the house-scavenging of such house or building till final orders in the case are passed by him.

202. Procedure in case of default by agriculturists. - (1) Should an agriculturist who himself cultivates land within [municipal area] or in a village coterminous therewith fail to provide for the proper house-scavenging of a house or building occupied by him, the [Municipality] may complain to a Magistrate.

(2) The Magistrate receiving the complaint shall hold an inquiry and should it appear to him that the agriculturist has not provided for the proper house-scavenging of the house or building, he may pass an order empowering the [Municipality] to undertake the same, and thereupon the [Municipality] shall be entitled to undertake such house-scavenging.

Street regulations

203. Provisions of laying out and making a street before the construction of a building on a site which does not abut a public or private street. - [Except where a site abuts a public or private street, if any person owning or possessing any land not hitherto used for building purposes intends to utilise, sell, lease or otherwise transfer such land or any portion thereof as site for the construction of a building, he shall, before utilising, selling, letting or otherwise transferring such site, lay out and make a street which shall connect such site with an existing public or private street].

[204. Permission to lay out and make a street. - (1) Every person before beginning to lay out or make a new private street shall submit an application in writing to the] [Municipality] seeking permission to lay out or make such street and shall, alongwith such application, submit plans showing the following particulars, -

(a) the proposed level, direction and width of the street;

(b) the street alignment and the building line and shall also state in the application the arrangements to be made for the levelling, paving, metalling, flagging, channelling, sewerage, draining, conserving and lighting of the street.

(2) The provisions of this Act and of any rules or bye-laws made thereunder as to the level and width of a public street and the height of a building abutting thereon shall apply to the case of a street referred to in sub-section (1), and all other particulars referred to in that sub-section shall be subject to the approval of the [Municipality].

(3) Within 60 days after the receipt of an application under sub-section (1) the [Municipality] shall either sanction the laying out or the making of the street on such conditions as it may think fit to impose or disallow it, or ask for further information with respect to it within a specified reasonable period.

(4) Such sanction may be refused, -

(i) if the proposed street would conflict with any arrangements which have been made or which are in the opinion of the [Municipality], likely to be made for carrying out any general scheme of street improvement, or

(ii) if the proposed street does not conform to the provisions of the Act, rules and bye-laws referred to in sub-section (2), or

(iii) if the proposed street is not designed so as to connect at least at one end with a public or a private street which is already connected with a public street.

(5) No person shall lay out or make any new private street or road without, or otherwise than in conformity with the orders of the [Municipality]. If further information is asked for under sub-section (3) the laying out or making of the street shall not be commenced until orders have been passed on the application after receipt of such information :

Provided that the passing of such order shall not in any case be delayed by more than 30 days after the [Municipality] has received all the informations which it considers necessary for the final disposal of the application.

[205. Sanction of the] [Municipality] to be presumed for laying out and making of a street in certain cases. - Should the [Municipality] neglect or omit for 60 days after the receipt of an application under sub-section (1) of Section 204 or if an order has been issued under sub-section (3) asking for further information, fail within a period specified in such order to deliver to the person who has submitted the application, particulars of the information required by the [Municipality], such person may, by a written communication, call the attention of the [Municipality] to the omission, neglect or failure, and if such omission, neglect or failure continues for a further period of 30 days, the [Municipality] shall be deemed to have sanctioned the laying out and making of the proposed street absolutely :

Provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorise any person to act in contravention of any provisions of the Act or any bye-laws.

206. Duration of sanction. - (1) A sanction given or deemed to have been given by a [Municipality] under [Sections 204 and 205] shall be available for one year.

(2) After the expiry of the said period the proposed street may not be commenced except in pursuance of a further sanction applied for and granted under the foregoing section

207. Illegal making of a street. - Whoever begins, continues or completes the laying out or making of a street without giving the notice required by Section [204] or in contravention of any written directions made by the [Municipality] under Section 205 or any bye-law or any provision of this Act shall be liable upon conviction to a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

208. Power of [Municipality] to alter unsanctioned street and demolish the same. - [(1) If any person lays out or makes any street referred to in Section 204, without or otherwise than in conformity with the orders of the] [Municipality], the [Municipality] may, notwithstanding any prosecution which may have been started against the offender under this Act, by notice in writing, -

(a) require the offender to show sufficient cause by a written statement signed by him and sent to the [Municipality] on or before such date as may be specified in the notice, why such street should not be altered to the satisfaction of the [Municipality], or if such alteration be impracticable, why such street should not be demolished, or

(b) require the offender to appear before the [Municipality] either personally or by a duly authorised agent, on such day of such time and place as may be specified in the notice, and show cause as aforesaid.

(2) If any person on whom such notice is served fails to show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the [Municipality], the [Municipality] may pass such order directing the alteration or demolition of the street as it thinks fit.

209. Sanction of [Municipality] to projections over streets and drains. - (1) Subject to any rules made by the [State Government] prescribing the conditions for the sanction by a [Municipality] of projections over streets or drains, a [Municipality] may give written permission, where provision is made by a bye-law for the giving of such permission, -

(a) to the owners or occupiers of buildings in or on streets to erect or re-erect open verandahs, balconies, or rooms, to project over the street from any upper storey thereof, at such height from the surface of the street, and to such an extent beyond the line of the plinth or basement wall as are prescribed in such bye-laws; and

(b) to the owner or occupier of any building or land to erect or re-erect any projection or structure so as to overhang, project into, or encroach on or over a drain in a street to such an extent, and in accordance with such conditions, as are in like manner prescribed.

(2) In giving permission, under clause (a) of sub-section (1), a [Municipality] may prescribe the extent to which, and the conditions under which, any roofs, caves, weather-boards, shop-boards and the like may be allowed to project over such streets.

210. Penalty for construction of projections over streets and drains without permission. - Any person erecting or re-erecting any such projection or structure as is referred to in Section 209 without the permission thereby required or in contravention of any permission given thereunder shall be liable for conviction to a fine which may extend to [one thousand rupees and in the absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be mentioned in the judgment of the Court shall not be less than two hundred and fifty rupees.]

211. Power to remove encroachments and projections over streets and drains. - The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of a building to remove, or to alter a projection or structure overhanging, projecting into or encroaching on a street, or into, on or over any drain, sewer or aqueduct therein :

Provided that in the case of any such projection or structure lawfully in existence on or before the tenth day of March 1900, the [Municipality] shall make compensation for any damage caused by the removal or alteration, which shall not exceed ten times the cost of erection and demolition.

212. Power to require levelling, paving, etc. of a street. - [(1) If any private street or part thereof is not levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, sewerred, drained, conserved, or lighted to the satisfaction of the] [Municipality], the [Municipality] may by notice require the owners or occupiers of premises [or lands], fronting, or abutting such street or part thereof to carry out any work which in its opinion may be necessary and within such time as may be specified in such notice.

(2) If such work is not carried out within the time specified in the notice, the [Municipality] may, if it thinks fit, execute it and the expenses incurred shall be recovered from the owner or occupiers in default under Chapter VI according to the frontage of their respective premises [or lands] and in such proportion as may be settled by the [Municipality].

(3) If any street has been levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, sewerred, drained, conserved and lighted under the provisions of the preceding sub-sections, such street shall, on the requisition of not less than three-fourths of the owners thereof, be declared a public street.

212A. Power of the [Municipality] to control and regulate the construction of any building or street and drains beyond [Municipal area]. - [Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act, a] [Municipality] may subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, control and regulate under this Chapter the construction of any building, street or drain, beyond the [limits of municipal area] up to a distance of five miles.

213. Power to require the protection of streets during erection of buildings, etc. - (1) No person shall cut down any tree or cut off a branch of any tree, or erect or re-erect or demolish any building or part of to building, or alter or repair the outside of any building where such action is of a nature because obstruction, danger or annoyance or risk of obstruction, danger or annoyance, to any person using a street, without the previous permission in writing of the [Municipality].

(2) The [Municipality] may at any time by notice require that any person doing or proposing to do any of the act referred to in sub-section (1) shall refrain from beginning or continuing the act unless he puts up, maintains, and provides from sunset to sunrise with sufficient lighting such hoardings or screens as are specified or described in the notice, and may further at any time by notice required the removal, within a time to be specified in the notice, of any screen or hoarding erecting in anticipation or in pursuance of any of the said acts.

(3) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to [five hundred] rupees and to a further fine which may extend to [ten] rupees for every day on which contravention continues after the date of the first conviction.

214. Power to require trimming of hedges and trees. - The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land to cut or trim the hedges growing thereon and bordering on a street, or any branches of trees growing thereon which overhang a street and obstruct the same or cause danger.

215. Power to remove accidental obstructions. - When a private house, wall or other erection or anything fixed thereto or a tree shall fall down and obstruct a public drain and encumber a street, the [Municipality] may remove such obstruction or encumbrance at the expense of the owner of the same and may recover such expense in the manner provided by Chapter VI, or may, by notice, require the owner to remove the same within a time to be specified in the notice.

216. Regulation of troughs and drain water pipes affecting a street. - The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any building or land abutting on a street to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for receiving and carrying off the water from the building or land, and for discharging the same in such manner as the [Municipality] may think fit, so as not to inconvenience persons passing along the street.

217. Naming of streets and numbering of buildings. - (1) The [Municipality] may, -
(a) [with the prior approval of the Prescribed Authority] cause a name or a new name to be given to a street; and
(b) cause the name or a new name to be affixed to or marked on any building in such position as it thinks fit; or
(c) require by a written notice the owner or occupier of any building to affix thereto a number plate or new number plate to a pattern approved by the [Municipality] or itself cause a number or a new number to be affixed to or marked on any building.

(2) Any person destroying, pulling down, defacing or altering any name or number or number plate affixed to or marked on a building under sub-section (1) or affixing to or marking on a building a different name or number from that affixed or marked by or under the order of the [Municipality] shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to [two hundred and fifty] rupees.

218. Power to attach brackets to buildings, etc. - (1) The [Municipality] may erect upon any premises, or attach to the outside of any building or to any tree, -

- (a) posts, brackets or other supports for oil, gas, electric or other lamps;
- (b) posts, brackets or other supports for telegraph wires, telephone wires or wires conducting electricity for locomotive purposes; or
- (c) shafts or pipes deemed necessary for the proper ventilation of drains and water-works.

(2) Provided that the erection or attachment of such supports, shafts and pipes shall not be effected in a manner to occasion injury or inconvenience and shall be subject, so far as may be, to any provisions of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, applying to the attachment, removal or alteration of a telegraph line or posts.

Public streets

219. Power to construct, improve and provide sites on public streets. - A [Municipality] may,

- (a) lay out and make a new public street and construct tunnels and other works subsidiary to the same; and
- (b) widen, lengthen, extend, enlarge or otherwise improve any existing public street if vested in the [Municipality]; and
- (c) turn, divert, discontinue or close any public street so vested; and
- (d) provide within its discretion building sites of such dimensions as it thinks fit to abut on or adjoin any public street made, widened, lengthened, extended, enlarged or improved by the [Municipality] under clauses (a), (b) and (c) or by the State Government; and
- (e) subject to the provisions of any rule prescribing the conditions on which property may be acquired by the [Municipality], acquire any land alongwith the buildings thereon, which it considers necessary for the purpose of any scheme or work undertaken or projected in exercise of the powers conferred by the preceding clauses; and
- (f) subject to the provisions of any rule prescribing the conditions on which property vested in the [Municipality] may be transferred, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by the [Municipality] under clause (e) or any and used by the [Municipality] for a public street and no longer required therefor, and in doing so impose any condition as to the removal of any building existing thereon, as to the description of any new building to be erected thereon, as to the period within which such new building shall be completed, and as to any other matter that it deems fit.

220. Use of public streets by vendors and other persons. - Notwithstanding any right or privilege (previously) acquired, accrued, or enjoyed in a [municipal area] for which bye-laws under sub-head (b) of heading E of Section 298 have been made and are in force, no itinerant vendor, or any other person, shall be entitled to use or occupy any public street or place for the sale of articles or for the exercise of any calling or for the setting up of any booth or stall without the permission of the [Municipality] given in accordance with such bye-laws.

221. Adoption of a street as a public street - [(1) A] [Municipality] may at any time, and shall, when required by a requisition under sub-section (3) of Section 212 by public notice posted up in a street, that is not a public street, or in part of such street, give intimation of its intention to declare the same a public street. Within two months next after such notice has been so posted up the owner or owners of such street or such part of a street, or of a greater portion thereof, may lodge objections at the municipal official against the notice. The [Municipality] shall consider the objections lodged, and if it rejects them, may, by further public notice posted up in such street or such part, declare the same to be a public street.

(2) Any public notice required under sub-section (1) shall, in addition to being posted up in the street, be published in a local paper (if any) or in such other manner as the [Municipality] thinks fit.

222. Power to regulate line of buildings on public streets. - (1) Whenever the [Municipality] considers it expedient to define the general line of buildings on each or either side of any existing or proposed public street, it shall give public notice of its intention to do so.

(2) Every such notice shall specify a period within which objections will be received.

(3) The [Municipality] shall consider all objections received within the specified period and may then pass a resolution defining the said line, and the line so defined shall be called "the regular line of the street".

(4) Thereafter it shall not be lawful for any person to erect, re-erect or alter a building or part of a building so as to project beyond the regular line of the street, unless he is authorised to do so by a sanction granted under Section 180 or by a permission in writing (and the [Municipality] is hereby empowered to grant such permission) under this section.

(5) Any owner of land who prevented by the provisions of this section from erecting, re-erecting or altering any building on any land may require the [Municipality] to make compensation for any damage which he may sustain by reason of such prevention, and upon the payment of compensation in respect of any land situated within the regular line of the street such land shall vest in the [Municipality].

(6) The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the alteration or demolition of any building or part of a building erected, re-erected or altered in contravention of sub-section (4).

223. Duties of [Municipality] when constructing public streets, etc. - (1)

The [Municipality] shall, during the construction or repair of a public street or of any water-works, drains or premises vested in it, or whenever any public street, water-works, drains or premises vested in it have, for want of repair or otherwise become unsafe for use by the public, take all necessary precautions against accident by, -

(a) shoring up and protecting adjacent buildings; and

(b) fixing bars, chains or posts across or in any street for the purpose of preventing or diverting traffic during such construction or repair; and

(c) guarding and providing with sufficient lighting from sunset to sunrise any work in progress.

(2) Whoever, without the authority or consent of the [Municipality] in any way interferes with any arrangement or construction made by the [Municipality] under sub-section (1) or guarding against accident shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Water supply

224. Power of [Municipality] to construct and alter water-works. - The [Municipality] may, -

(a) construct water-works within or, subject to the provision of sub-section (2) of Section 120, outside the [municipal area], and may carry such works through, across, over or under any street or place, and after reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, into, through, over or under any buildings or land;

(b) from time to time enlarge, lessen, alter the course of, cover in or otherwise improve any water-works and discontinue, dose up or remove the same;

(c) with the previous sanction of the State Government, grant to any person or company a licence to supply water within [municipal area] and for this purpose to lay down mains and pipes, construct water-works and do all other necessary acts or things; and

(d) with the same sanction, transfer all or any part of it existing waterworks to the management of such licensee :

Provided that such sanction shall not be given unless the State Government is satisfied that it will be in the best interest of the public concerned.

224A. Powers and liabilities of licensee. - (1) When a licence is granted under clause (c) of Section 224, the rate at which, the manner in which, and the person by whom, payments shall be made to the licensee for water supplied by him and the terms and conditions on which the licensee may grant water connections to the consumers shall be settled between the [Municipality] and the licensee and entered in the licence, and the [Municipality] may delegate to the licensee any of the powers conferred on it by this Act or rules relating to water-works and water-supply :

Provided that the power of assessment of water-tax and of its recovery otherwise than by a civil suit shall not be delegated to the licensee.

(2) Such licensee with the previous sanction of the [Municipality] may exercise the powers conferred on the [Municipality] by Sections 225 and 227 of this Act.

[224B. Revocation of existing licences. - Every licence granted under clause (c) of Section 224 shall, if not already revoked, stand revoked with effect from June 13, 1975.]

[224C. Provisions where licence of a licensee is revoked. - (1) Where the licence of a licensee is revoked under Section 224-B as it stood immediately before the commencement of the U.P. Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1975, or where such licence stands revoked by virtue of the new Section 224-B as substituted by the said Act, all the property pertaining to the water-works (namely, all existing water supply services, including all plants, machinery, water-works, pumping sets, filter beds, water mains and pipes laid down along, over or under any public street, and all buildings and other works, materials, stores and things appurtenant thereto) belonging to or vested in the licensee immediately before the date of revocation of the licence (hereinafter in this section referred to as the 'said date') shall as from the said date vest in and stand transferred to the [Municipality] free from any debt, mortgage or similar obligation of the licensee attached to such property :

Provided that any such debt, mortgage or similar obligation shall attach to the amount referred to in sub-section (2) in substitution for such property.

(2) Where any property belonging to the licensee vests in the [Municipality] under sub-section (1), not being water-works of which only the management was transferred to him by the [Municipality] under clause (d) of Section 224 the [Municipality] shall pay to such licensee an amount determined as hereinafter provided in this section :

Provided that the licensee shall, in addition to the said amount, be paid interest thereon on the Reserve Bank rate ruling on the said date plus one per centum for the period from the said date to the date of payment of the said amount.

(3) The State Government shall appoint, by order in writing, a person having adequate knowledge and experience in matters relating to accounts, to be Special Officer to assess any amount payable under this section to the licensee after making the deductions mentioned in this section.

(4) (a) The Special Officer may call for the assistance of such officers and staff of the State Government in the Local Self-Government Engineering Department or of the licensee as he may deem fit for assessing the net amount payable.

(b) The Special Officer shall have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, when trying a suit, in respect of the following matters

- (i) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (ii) compelling the production of documents; and
- (iii) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

The Special Officer shall also have such further powers as may be specified by the State Government by notification in the Gazette.

(5) The gross amount payable to such licensee shall be the aggregate value of the amounts specified below, -

- (i) the book value of all completed works in beneficial use pertaining to the water-works and taken over by the [Municipality] (excluding works paid for by the consumers), less depreciation calculated in accordance with the Table appended to this section;
- (ii) the book value of works in progress taken over, excluding works paid for by the consumers or prospective consumers;
- (iii) the book value of all stores, including spare parts taken over and in the case of used stores and spare parts, if taken over, such sum as may be decided upon by the Special Officer;
- (iv) the book value of all other fixed assets in use on the said date and taken over, less depreciation calculated in accordance with the said Table;
- (v) the book value of all plants and equipments existing on the said date, if taken over, but no longer in use owing to wear and tear or to obsolescence, to the extent such value has not been written off in accordance with the said Table.

Explanation. - The book value of any fixed asset means its original cost, and shall comprise, -

- (i) the purchase price paid by the licensee for the assets, including the cost of delivery and all charges properly incurred in erecting and bringing the assets into beneficial use, as shown in the books of the licensee;
- (ii) the cost of supervision actually incurred, but not exceeding fifteen per cent of the amount referred to in paragraph (i) :

Provided that before deciding the amount under this sub-section, the licensee shall be given an opportunity by the Special Officer of being heard, after giving him a notice of at least 15 days therefor.

(6) The [Municipality] shall be entitled to deduct the following sums from the gross amount payable under sub-section (5) to the licensee, -

(a) all amounts and arrears of interest, if any, thereon, due from the licensee to the [Municipality];

(b) all amounts and arrears of interest, if any, thereon, due to the State Government or the State Electricity Board;

(c) any amount of wages, bonus, gratuity, provident fund or other payments due to remaining unpaid on the said date to persons employed as workmen (within the meaning of the U.P. Industrial Disputes Act, 1947), in connection with the water-works;

(d) any amount which licensee may have failed to pay in respect of either Iris contribution or the employees' contribution realised by him or any other dues recoverable from licensee under the Employees' Provident Fund Act, 1952 or the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 in respect of persons employed in connection with the water-works.

(7) The liability of the licensee towards the State Government or the State Electricity Board or towards his employees, as the case may be, to the extent of deduction made under sub-section (7) shall stand discharged. Upon any such deduction being made the [Municipality] shall to that extent be liable to make payment to the State Government, the State Electricity Board or the workmen, as the case may be.

(8) Where the gross amount payable to the licensee is equal to or less than the amount to be deducted under this section no payment shall be made to the licensee by the [Municipality].

(9) The amount, if any, payable by the [Municipality] to the licensee shall be as determined by the Special Officer under sub-sections (5), (6) and (8) and nothing in Section 324 shall be construed to apply in relation to the determination of the amount payable by the [Municipality] under this section.

Table of depreciation based on the period of life expectancy of various assets

There shall be deducted for each year in respect of fixed assets employed in the licensee's undertaking such an amount as would, if set aside annually throughout the period specified in the following table and accumulated at compound interest at four per cent per annum, produce at the end of the said period an amount equal to ninety per cent of the original cost of the asset after taking into account the sums already written off or set aside in the books of licensee :

Column 1 Description of asset	Column 2 Number of years or period
A. Land owned under full title	Infinite
B. Land held under lease.	The period of the lease or the period remaining unexpired on the assignment of the lease.

C. Assets purchased now, -
(a) building and Civil Engineering works of a permanent character not mentioned above -
(i) Offices	Fifty
(ii) Temporary erections such as wooden structures.	Five
(iii) Roads other than Kachcha Roads.	One hundred
(iv) Others	Fifty
(b) Self-propelled vehicles	Seven
(c) (i) Office furniture and fittings.	Twenty
(ii) Office equipment	Ten
D. Assets purchased second hand and assets not otherwise proposed for in this Table.	Such reasonable period as the Special Officer determines in each case having regard to the nature, age and condition of the asset at the time of its acquisition by it.

225. Power to require private water-course, etc. to be cleaned or closed. - (1)

The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner of, or the person having control over a private water-course, spring, tank, well or other place, the water of which is used for drinking, to keep and maintain the same in good repair and to clean the same, from time to time, of silt, refuse or decaying vegetation and may also require him to protect the same for pollution in such manner as the [Municipality] may think fit.

(2) When the water of any such water-course, spring, tank, well or other place is proved to the satisfaction of the [Municipality] to be unfit for drinking, the [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner, or person having control thereof to desist from so using such water or permitting others to so use it, and if, after such notice such water is used by any person for drinking, the [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner or person having control thereof to close such well either temporarily or permanently, or to enclose or fence such water-course, spring, tank, well or other place in such manner as it may direct, so that the water thereof may not be so used.

226. Emergent powers on outbreak of epidemic - In the event of a [municipal area], or any part thereof, being visited with an outbreak of cholera or other infectious disease notified in this behalf by the State Government, the [President] of the [Municipality] or any person authorised by him in this behalf, may, during the continuance of the epidemic, without notice and at any time, inspect and disinfect any well, tank or other place from which water is, or is likely to be, taken for the purpose of drinking, and may further, take such steps as he deems fit to prevent the removal of water therefrom.

227. Removal of latrines, etc. near any source of water supply. - The [Municipality] may by notice require an owner or occupier on whose land a drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse exists within fifty feet of a spring, well, tank, reservoir or other source from which water is, or may be, derived for public use, to remove or close the same within one week from the service of such notice.

228. Obligation of [Municipality] imposing water-tax. - (1) [Every municipality] in which a water-tax is imposed, shall be bound, -

(a) throughout a prescribed area or prescribed areas -

(i) to maintain a system of water-supply through pipes, and

(ii) to lay on water at a prescribed pressure and during prescribed hours, and

(iii) to supply in all the chief streets in which mains have been laid, water to stand-pipes or pumps situated at such intervals as are prescribed; and

(b) [subject to the rules as may be framed] to allow the owner or occupier of any building or land assessed to a prescribed minimum water-tax to connect for the purpose of obtaining water for domestic purposes, the building or land with a main by means of a communication pipe of the prescribed size and description; and

(c) to supply, within every twenty-four hour, to every owner or occupier entitled to a house connection under clause (b) whose land or building is provided therewith such amount of water as is prescribed with reference to the water-tax payable by him and his estimated requirements for domestic purposes, into a storage cistern erected in or on the building or land, of a capacity not less than such amount and of a prescribed pattern and at an altitude not exceeding the maximum prescribed for the same.

(2) The word "prescribed" in sub-section (1) means prescribed by rule under Section 235.

229. Supply of water by agreement. - Every [Municipality] may by agreement supply any owner or occupier of land with any water that he may require for any purpose for such remuneration, consistent with any rate or rates prescribed by rule, and on such terms and conditions, consistent with this Act and with any rule, as are agreed on between the [Municipality] and such owner or occupier.

230. Charges for water supply. - (1) When any building or land is connected with a main, the [Municipality] may, so far as is consistent with any agreement made under Section 2.29, charge the owner, lessor, or occupier, whichever is prescribed by rule, for all water consumed at the rate or rates so prescribed.

(2) Provided that the [Municipality] shall deduct from the charge on account of water supplied in any month one-twelfth of the water-tax assessed on the building or land.

231. Exemption of [Municipality] from liability owing to accident, etc. - Notwithstanding any obligation imposed on a [Municipality] by Section 228 or by any agreement made under Section 229, a [Municipality] shall not be liable to any forfeiture, penalty or damages for failure to supply water, if the failure to supply arises from accident or from unusual drought or other unavoidable cause.

232. Subordination to supply for domestic purposes of supply for other purposes. - Notwithstanding any obligation to supply water imposed by an agreement under Section 229, the [Municipality] may at any time cease to supply water for other than domestic purposes, if it is of the opinion that such supply would interfere with the supply of water for domestic purposes, in such case the [Municipality] shall not be liable to any forfeiture, penalty or damages for so ceasing, -

- (a) unless the failure to supply such water arises from a cause other than one specified in Section 231; and
- (b) unless the [Municipality] has undertaken to supply water for other than domestic purposes by an agreement made under Section 229, making provision for forfeiture, penalty or damages upon failure to supply such water.

233. Subordination of rights of supply to restrictive rules. - Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 228 or in any agreement under Section 229, the supply of water to any building or land shall be, and shall be deemed to have been granted, subject to the provisions of any rule made under Section 235, and in particular to any provision as to the limit or stoppage of the supply and as to the prevention of waste and misuse.

234. Provision as to meters and connection pipes. - All meters, connection pipes and other works incidental to the supply of water to any building or land shall except as otherwise provided by rule, be supplied, repaired extended and altered as may be necessary, at the expense of the person requiring the supply, but shall be under the control of the [Municipality].

235. Water-supply rules. - (1) The following matters relating to supply of water from municipal or public water works shall be regulated and governed by rules, namely, -

- (a) any matter in respect of which this Act declares that provision shall be made by rule;
- (b) the size and nature of the mains and pipes to be laid and the water works to be constructed by a [Municipality] for the supply of water;
- (c) the construction, control and maintenance of municipal waterworks and of pipes and fittings in connection therewith;
- (d) the size and nature of the stand-pipes or pumps to be erected by a [Municipality];
- (e) the mains or pipes in which fire-plugs are to be fixed and the places at which keys of the fire-plugs are to be deposited;
- (f) the periodical analysis by a qualified analyst of the water supply by a [Municipality];
- (g) the conservation and prevention of injury or contamination to sources and means of water supply and appliances for the distribution of water, whether within or without [the municipal area];
- (h) the manner in which connections with water works may be constructed or maintained and the agency which shall or may be employed for such construction or maintenance;

- (i) the regulation of all matters and things connected with the supply and use of water and the turning on and turning off and preventing waste of water;
- (j) the collection of water-tax and of charges relating to the supply of water and the prevention of evasion of the same; and
- (k) any other matter relating to the supply of water in respect of which this Act makes no provision or insufficient provision and further provision is, in the opinion of the State Government, necessary.

(2) Provided that no rule shall be made under sub-section (1) affecting a cantonment or part of a cantonment without the previous sanction of the Central Government.

[235A. Rules relating to the supply of water by a person or company. - The following matters relating to the grant of a licence under clause (c) of Section 224 of the Act shall be regulated and governed by rules to be made by the State Government subject to the conditions prescribed in Section 300, -

- (1) the selection of a licensee;
- (2) the form of application for a licence;
- (3) the form of licence;
- (4) the preparation and submission of returns and accounts by the licensee in a prescribed form;
- (5) duties of a licensee;
- (6) the securing of a regular and wholesome supply of water by the licensee to consumers;
- (7) the appointment of an officer of a specified rank and class to ensure that the provisions of the Act and the rules relating to water-works are being properly carried out; and
- (8) any other matter which is necessary for the proper working of the licence.]

Power for removal of structures interfering with public works

236. Unauthorised construction of street over drain or water-work. - (1) Where, on or after the 10th day of March, 1900, any street has been made or any building, wall or other structure has been erected or any tree has been planted without the permission in writing of the [Municipality] over a public drain or culvert or a water-work vested in the [Municipality], the [Municipality] may, -

(a) by notice require the person who has made the street, erected the structure or planted the tree, or the owner or occupier of the land on which the street has been made, structure erected or tree planted, remove or deal in any other way the [Municipality] thinks fit with the street, structure or tree; or

(b) itself remove or deal in any other way it, thinks fit with the street, structure or tree.

(2) Any expense incurred by a [Municipality] by action taken under clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be recoverable in the manner prescribed by Chapter VI from the person by whom the street was made, structure erected or tree planted.

239. Powers of District Magistrate in respect of animals not slaughtered for sale. - Whenever it appears to District Magistrate to be necessary for the preservation of the public peace or order, he may, subject to the control of the [Prescribed Authority], prohibit or regulate, by public notice, the slaughter within the limits of a [municipal area] of animal or animals of any specified description for purposes other than sale and prescribe the mode and route in and by which such animals shall be brought to, and meat shall be conveyed from, the place of slaughter.

240. Disposal of flesh imported in contravention of a bye-law regulating importation. - Should the flesh of any cattle, sheep, goat or swine be brought within [the limits of municipal area] in contravention of a bye-law made under sub-head (e) of Heading F of Section 298, it may be seized by an officer of [Municipality] authorized in that behalf, and may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the [Municipality] may, by general or special order, direct.

241. Licensing of markets and shops for sale of certain articles. - (1) The right of any person to use any place, within the limits of a [municipal area], other than a municipal market, as a market or shop for the sale of animals, meat or fish intended for human food, or as a market for the sale of fruit or vegetables, shall be subject to bye-laws (if any) made under Heading F of Section 298.

(2) Provided that, where any bye-law is in force requiring a licence for the establishment or maintenance of a market or shop for the sale of any article mentioned in sub-section (1), the [Municipality] shall not, -

(a) refuse a licence for the maintenance of a market or shop lawfully established at the date of such bye-law coming into force, if application be made within six months from such date, except on the ground that the place where the market or shop is established fails to comply with any conditions prescribed by or under this Act; or

(b) cancel, suspend or refuse to review any licence granted under such bye-law for any cause other than the failure of the licensee to comply with the conditions of the licence or with any provision of, or made under this Act.

242. Improper feeding of animals kept for dairy purposes or used for food. - Whoever feeds, or allows to be fed an animal which is kept for dairy purposes, or may be used for food, on filthy or deleterious substances, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

243. Inspection of places for sale of food, drink and drugs. - The [President], the executive officer, [the medical officer of health] and, if authorised in this behalf by resolution, any other member, officer or servant of the [Municipality] may, without notice at any period of the day or night, enter into and inspect a market, shop, stall or place used for the sale of food or drink for man or as a slaughter-house; or for the sale of drugs, and inspect and examine any article of food or drink, or any animal or drug which may be therein.

244. Seizure of unwholesome articles and removal of deleterious and unspent drugs. - (1) If in the course of the inspection of a place under the preceding section, an article of food or drink or animal appears to be intended for the consumption of man and to be unfit therefor, the [Municipality] may seize and remove the same, or may cause it to be destroyed, or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or use for such consumption.

(2) If it is reasonably suspected that a drug has been improperly adulterated, or by reason of age or the effect of climate has become inert or unwholesome, or has otherwise become deteriorated in such a manner as to lessen its efficacy, or to change its operation, or to render it noxious, the [Municipality] may remove the same, giving a receipt therefor, and may produce it before a Magistrate.

(3) If it appears to a Magistrate before whom a drug has been produced under sub-section (2) that the drug has been improperly adulterated or has become inert, unwholesome or deteriorated as aforesaid, he may order the same to be destroyed, or to be so disposed of as to him may deem fit, and if any offence appears to have been committed, he may proceed to take cognizance thereof.

Nuisances for certain trades and professions

245. Regulation of offensive trades. - (1) If it is shown to the satisfaction of a [Municipality] that any building or place within the limits of the [municipal area] which any person uses or intends to use as a factory or other place of business for the manufacture, storage, treatment or disposal of any article, by reason of such use, or by reason of such intended use, occasions or is likely to occasion a public nuisance, the [Municipality] may at its option require by notice the owner or occupier of the building or place, -

(a) to desist or refrain, as the case may be, from using, or allowing to be used, the building or place for such purpose; or

(b) only to use, or allow to be used, the building or place for such purpose under such conditions or alter such structural alterations as the [Municipality] imposes or prescribes in the notice with the object of rendering the use of the building or place for such purpose free from objection.

(2) Whoever, after receiving a notice given under sub-section (1) uses or allows to be used any building or place in contravention of the notice shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees and to a further fine which may extend to forty rupees for every day on which he so uses or allows to be used the place of building after the date of the first conviction.

(3) The State Government may, by notification, make the provisions of this section, or of any bye-law made under Heading G of Section 298, applicable to any area beyond the [municipal area] lying within a distance of a mile from the [boundary of the municipal area].

246. Loitering and soliciting for immoral purpose. - Whoever, in a street or public place within the limits of the [municipal area] loiters for the purpose of prostitution or importunes a person to the commission of sexual immorality, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees :

Provided that no Court shall take cognizance of an offence under this section except on the complaint of the persons importuned, or on the complaint of a municipal officer not below the rank of a sub-inspector respectively authorized in this behalf in writing by the [Municipality] and the District Magistrate.

247. Brothels, etc. - (1) When a Magistrate of the first class receives information, -

(a) that a house in the vicinity of the place of worship or an educational institution or a boarding house, or hostel or mess used or occupied by student is used as a brothel or for the purpose of habitual prostitution or by disorderly persons of any description; or

(b) that any house is used as aforesaid to the annoyance of respectable inhabitants in the vicinity; or

(c) that house in the immediate neighbourhood of a cantonment is used as a brothel or of the purpose of habitual prostitution;

he may summon the owner, tenant, manager or occupier of the house to appear before him either in person or by agent; and if satisfied that the house is used as described in clause (a), (b), or clause (c), may, by a written order, direct such owner, tenant, manager, or occupier, within a period to be stated in such order, not less than five days from the date thereof, to discontinue such use :

Provided that action under this sub-section shall be taken only, -

(i) with the sanction or by order of the District Magistrate; or

(ii) on the complaint of three or more persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the house to which the complaint refers; or

(iii) [* * *] on the complaint of the [Municipality].

(2) If a person against whom an order has been passed by a Magistrate under sub-section (1) fails to comply with such order within the period stated therein, the Magistrate may impose on him a fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees for every day after the expiration of that period during which the house is so used.

248. Begging, etc. - [* * *] Whoever, in a street or public place within the [municipal area], begs importunately for alms, or exposes or exhibits, with the object of exciting charity a deformity or disease or an offensive sore or wound, shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment which may extend to one month or to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees or to both.

Public safety

249. Disposal of mad dog, etc. - The [Municipality] may authorize any person to destroy or to cause to be destroyed, or to confine or to cause to be confined, for such period as the [Municipality] may direct, any dog or other animal suffering, or reasonably suspected to be suffering, from rabies, or bitten by a dog or other animal suffering or suspected as aforesaid.

250. Muzzling order. - (1) Where in any [municipal area] the prevalence of rabies in the opinion of the [Municipality] renders it necessary, the [Municipality] may by public notice require the muzzling, for such period as it thinks fit or until such notice is cancelled, of all dogs within the [municipal area], or within any part of the [municipal area].

(2) During such period of time the [Municipality] may exercise the power conferred by Section 249 in respect of any dog which is found at large without a muzzle after a date to be specified in the notice.

251. Bar to compensation for dogs lawfully destroyed. - No damages shall be payable in respect of a dog or other animals destroyed or otherwise disposed of under the provisions of Section 249 or 250 or of any bye-law made under sub-head (h) or (l) of Heading H of Section 298.

252. Neglect of the rule of the road. - Whoever, in driving, leading or propelling a vehicle along a street, fails, except in the case of actual necessity, -

(a) to keep to the left; and

(b) when he is passing a vehicle going in the same direction, to keep to the right of that vehicle, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to ten rupees.

Exception. - This section shall not apply in the case of a [municipal area] wholly or in part situated in a hilly tract.

253. Driving vehicles without proper lights. - Whoever drives, leads or propels a vehicle between nightfall and dawn in a street, unless the vehicle is properly supplied with lights, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees :

Provided that a [Municipality] may by a special resolution confirmed by the [Prescribed Authority] direct that this section shall not apply in the case of vehicles proceeding at not more than walking pace.

254. Failure to remove elephant, etc. to safe distance. - Whoever, being in charge of an elephant, camel or bear, omits, on being requested to do so, to remove so far as may be practicable his elephant, camel or bear to a safe distance on the approach of a horse, whether ridden, driven or led, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

255. Prohibition of tethering of cattle, etc. on street. - (1) The owner or keeper of any cattle or other animals, found tethered, or straying about without a keeper in a street or public place shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to [two hundred and fifty] rupees.

(2) An animal found tethered as aforesaid may be removed by a municipal officer or servant or by a police officer to a pound as if the animal had been found straying.

256. Halting vehicles or animals on public grounds. - Where any land vested in the [Municipality] [or any public place] is, without the permission in writing of the [Municipality], used as a halting place for any vehicle or animal or as a place of encampment, the owner or a keeper of the vehicle or animal or the person encamping, as the case may be, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to [one hundred] rupees and in the case of a continuing breach, to a further fine which may extend to [ten] rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the commission of the offence.

257. Power as to inflammable structures. - (1) The [Municipality] may, by public notice, direct that within certain limits to be fixed by it, the roofs and external walls of huts or other buildings shall not be made or renewed with grass, mats leaves, or other highly inflammable materials without the consent of the [Municipality] in writing.

(2) The [Municipality] may at any time by written notice require the owner of a building, which has an external roof or wall made of any such material as aforesaid, to remove such roof or wall within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice, notwithstanding that a public notice under sub-section (1) has not been issued or that such roof or wall was made with the consent of the [Municipality] or before the issue of such public notice, if any :

Provided that in the case of any such roof or wall in existence before the issue of such public notice or made with the consent of the [Municipality], the [Municipality] shall make compensation for any damage caused by the removal which shall not exceed the original cost of constructing the roof or wall.

(3) Whoever, without such consent as is required by sub-section (1), makes or renews, or causes to be made or renewed or in disobedience to a notice given under sub-section (2) suffers to remain, a roof or wall or such material as aforesaid, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees and to a further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day on which the offence is continued, after the date of the first conviction.

258. Power to search for inflammable materials in excess of authorized quantity. - (1) The [Municipality] may, without notice and at any period of the day or night, enter into and inspect a house or building which is suspected to contain petroleum, or other inflammable material, in excess of the quantity permitted to be kept in such house or building under the provision of Section 245 or of any bye-law.

(2) Should any such excess quantity of such material be discovered, it may be seized and held subject to such order as a Magistrate may pass with respect to it.

(3) If the Magistrate decides that the material seized was stored in the house or building contrary to any direction made under Section 245 or the provision of any bye-law, he may pass an order confiscating the same.

(4) Subject to any provision of, or made under, this or any other enactment, the material so confiscated may be sold by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds, after defraying the expenses of such sale, shall be credited to the municipal fund.

(5) No order of confiscation under this section shall operate to prevent any other criminal or civil proceedings to which the person storing the material in excessive quantity may be liable.

259. Stacking, etc. of inflammable materials. - The [Municipality] may, where it appears to be necessary for the prevention of danger to life or property, by public notice prohibit all persons from stacking or collecting wood, dry grass, straw or other inflammable materials, or from placing mats or thatched huts or lighting fires in a place or within limits specified in the notice.

260. Dangerous quarrying. - (1) If, in the opinion of the [Municipality], the working of a quarry, or the removal of stone, earth or other material from the soil in any place is dangerous to persons residing in, or entitled to visit, the neighbourhood thereof, or creates, or is likely to create, a public nuisance, the [Municipality] may, by written notice, prohibit the owner of the said quarry or place, or the person responsible for such working or removal, from continuing or permitting the working of such quarry, or the removal of such materials, or may require him to take such order with such quarry or place as the [Municipality] shall direct for the purpose of preventing danger or abating the nuisance arising or likely to arise therefrom.

(2) If, in any case referred to in sub-section (1) it appears to the [Municipality] to be necessary in order to prevent imminent danger, it may cause a proper hoarding or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers near a quarry or place, and any expense incurred by the [Municipality] in taking such action shall be paid by the owner or other person as aforesaid, and shall be recoverable in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

261. Displacing pavements, etc. - (1) Whoever displaces, takes up or makes an alteration in, or otherwise interferes with, the pavement, gutter, flags, or other materials of a public street or the fences, walls or posts thereof, or a municipal lamp, lamp post bracket, direction post, stand post, hydrant or other such municipal property therein, without the written consent of the [Municipality], or other lawful authority, and whoever extinguishes a municipal light shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to one [thousand] rupees.

(2) Any expense incurred by the [Municipality] by reason of the doing of any such thing as is mentioned in sub-section (1) may be recovered from the offender in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

262. Discharging firearms, etc. - Whoever discharges firearms or lets off fireworks or fire-balloons, or engages in a game, in such a manner as to cause or to be likely to cause, danger to persons passing by or dwelling or working in the neighbourhood, or risk of injury to property, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

263. Power for the prevention of danger from ruinous buildings, unprotected wells, etc. -

(1) A [Municipality] may require by notice the owner or occupier of any land or building, -

(a) to demolish or to repair in such manner as it deems necessary any building wall, bank or other structure, or anything, affixed thereto, or to remove any tree, belonging to such owner or in the possession of such occupier which appears to the [Municipality] to be in a ruinous condition or dangerous to persons or property; or

(b) to repair, protect or enclose, in such manner as it deems necessary, any well, tank reservoir, pool or excavation belonging to such owner or in the possession of such occupier, which appears to the [Municipality] to be dangerous by reason of its situation, want of repair or other such circumstances.

(2) Where it appears to the [Municipality] that immediate action is necessary for the purpose of preventing imminent danger to any person or property, it shall be the duty of the [Municipality] itself to take such immediate action, and in such case, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 287, it shall not be necessary for the [Municipality] to give notice, if it appears to the [Municipality] that the object of taking such immediate action would be defeated by the delay incurred in giving notice.

264. Power to prevent unoccupied buildings or land becoming a nuisance. -

The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner of a building or land which, by reason of abandonment or disputed ownership or other cause, is unoccupied and has become a resort of idle and disorderly persons or otherwise occasions, or is likely to occasion, a public nuisance, to secure and enclose the same within a reasonable time fixed in the notice.

265. Obstruction of street. - (1) Whoever without the written permission of the [Municipality],

- (a) causes or allows any vehicle, with or without an animal harnessed thereto, remain or stand so as to cause obstruction in any street longer than may be necessary for loading or unloading or for taking up or setting down passengers; or
- (b) leaves or fastens any vehicle or animal so as to cause obstruction in any street; or
- (c) exposes any article for sale, whether upon a stall or booth or in any other manner, so as to cause obstruction in any street; or
- (d) deposits or suffers to be deposited, any building materials, box, bale, package, or merchandise in any street; and
- (e) erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, stall or any scaffolding or any other such fixture in any street; or
- (f) in any manner willfully obstructs or causes obstruction of the free passage of any street; shall be liable upon conviction to a fine which may extend to [five hundred rupees and in the case of a continuing breach to a further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every days after the day of first conviction during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the commission of the offence].

(2) The [Municipality] shall have power to remove any obstruction referred to in sub-section (1), and the expense of such removal shall be recoverable from the offender in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

(3) The power exercisable by a [Municipality] under sub-section (2) to remove obstructions from streets shall also be exercisable for the removal by the [Municipality] of obstructions from any open space, whether vested in the [Municipality] or not, which is not private property.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any obstruction of a street permitted by the [Municipality] under any section of this Act or any rule or bye-law made or licence granted thereunder.

266. Digging up of public land. - Whoever, without the written permission of the [Municipality] digs up or removes earth, sand or other material from any open space, whether vested in the [Municipality] or not, which is not private property, shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding [five hundred] rupees, and, if the offence is a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding ten rupees for every day during which the offence continues after the date of the first conviction for such offence.

Sanitation and prevention of disease

267. Private drains, cesspools, dust bins, latrines, etc. - (1) A [Municipality] may require by notice the owner or occupier of any land or building, -

- (a) to close, remove, alter repair, cleanse, disinfect or put in good order any latrine, urinal, water-closet, drain, cesspool, dust-bin or other receptacle for filth, sullage-water, rubbish or refuse pertaining to such land or building, or to remove or alter any door or trap-door of any such latrine, urinal or water-closet which opens on to a street or drain; or

(b) to provide such latrines, urinals, water-closets, drains, cesspools, dust-bins or other receptacles for filth, sullage-water, rubbish or refuse as should in its opinion be provided for the building or land whether in addition or not to any existing ones; or

(c) to cause any latrine, urinal or water-closet provided for the building or land to be shut-off by a sufficient roof and wall or fence from the view of persons passing by or dwelling in the neighbourhood.

(2) When requiring under sub-section (1) anything to be provided, altered or done, the [Municipality] may specify in the notice the description of the thing to be provided, the pattern so as to conform with which the thing is to be altered, and the manner in which the thing is to be done.

268. Latrines for factories, schools and places of public resort. - The [Municipality] may require by notice any person employing more than twenty workmen or labourers or owning, managing or having control of a market, school or theatre or other place of public resort to provide such latrines and urinals as it may deem fit, and to cause the same to be kept in proper order and to be daily cleansed :

[Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a factory regulated by the Indian Factories Act, 1911.]

269. Power to require removal of nuisance arising from tanks, etc. - (1)

The [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of any land or building cleanse, repair, cover, fill up or drain off a private well, tank, reservoir, pool, depression or excavation therein which may appear to the [Municipality] to be injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood.

(2) Provided that the owner or occupier may require the [Municipality] to acquire at its expense, or otherwise, provide, any land or right in land necessary for the purpose of effecting drainage ordered under sub-section (1).

270. Inspection of drains, privies, etc - (1) Subject to the provisions of Section 278, the [Municipality] may inspect a drain, water-closet, latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth, and for that purpose may cause the ground to be opened where it thinks fit.

(2) The expense of such inspection and of causing the ground to be closed and made good as before shall be borne by the [Municipality], unless the drain, privy, water-closet, latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth is found to be in bad order or condition, or was constructed in contravention of the any provisions of, or made under, this or any other enactment, in which case such expenses shall be paid by the owner or occupier and shall be recoverable in the manner, provided by Chapter VI.

271. Cleansing of filthy buildings or land. - Should any building or land be in a filthy or unwholesome state, the [Municipality] may, by notice, require the owner or occupier thereof to cleanse, or otherwise, put in a proper state, the building or land, and thereafter to keep the same in a clean and proper state.

272. Failure to remove offensive matter. - Whenever on any building or land, -

(a) any dirt, dung, bones, ashes, night-soil or filth or any noxious or offensive matter is kept for more than twenty-four hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle; or

(b) any receptacle for such things is suffered to be in a filthy or noxious state or is not subjected to any proper method of cleaning or purifying;

the owner or occupier of the building of land shall be liable on conviction, to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and, in the case of a continuing breach, to a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the offender has been proved to have persisted in the commission of the offence.

273. Regulation of the disposal of rubbish, night-soil, etc. - (1) The [Municipality] may, -

(a) provide receptacles and places for the temporary deposit of offensive matter and rubbish;

(b) appoint places for the disposal of night-soil, carcasses and other offensive matters and rubbish; and

(c) by public notice issue directions as to the time, manner and conditions at, in and subject to which any offensive matter or rubbish referred to in clauses (a) and (b) may be removed along a street, deposited or otherwise disposed of.

(2) It shall be sufficient notice of the appointment of a place under clause (b) of sub-section (1) that a notice board indicating such appointment is displayed on or near the place appointed.

(3) Before appointing a place outside [the limits of the municipal area] under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the [Municipality] shall obtain the previous sanction of the District Magistrate.

274. Penalty for improper disposal of rubbish, night-soil, etc. - The occupier of any building or land from which any offensive matter, rubbish, night soil or carcass is thrown or deposited on any part of a public place or street, or into any public sewer or drain, or into any drain communicating with a public sewer or drain, otherwise than in a place appointed under clause (b) or in a receptacle provided under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 273, and any person contravening any direction of a [Municipality] issued under clause (c) of the said sub-section shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding [two hundred and fifty] rupees.

275. Disposal of dead bodies of animals. - (1) Whenever an animal in the charge of a person dies, otherwise than by being slaughtered either for sale or consumption or for some religious purposes, the person-in-charge thereof shall, within twenty-four hours, either, -

(a) convey the carcass to a place (if any) fixed by the [Municipality] under Section 273 for the disposal of the dead bodies of animals or to a place beyond [the limits of the municipal area] not being within one mile of those limits; or

(b) give notice of the death to the [Municipality], whereupon the [Municipality] shall cause the carcass to be disposed of.

(2) Every person bound to act in accordance with sub-section (1) shall, if he fails so to act, be liable upon conviction to a fine which may extend to ten rupees.

(3) For the disposal of the dead body of an animal under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the [Municipality] may charge such fee as the [Municipality] has prescribed, and may recover the same, if not paid in advance, from the owner or keeper of the animal in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

276. Penalty for discharging sewage on public street, etc. - Whenever the water of a sink, sewer or cesspool or any other offensive matter is allowed to flow, drain or be put upon a public street or place, or into a sewer to drain not set apart for the purpose without the permission in writing of the [Municipality] or in contravention of any condition prescribed in such permission, the owner or occupier of the land or building from which such water or offensive matter so flows, drains or is put shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine which may extend to [two hundred and fifty] rupees.

277. Power to enter and disinfect buildings. - Subject to the provisions of Section 287, the [Municipality] may enter and inspect a building, and may by notice direct all or any part thereof to be internally or externally lime washed, disinfect or otherwise cleansed for sanitary reasons :

[Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a factory regulated by the Indian Factories Act, 1911].

278. Building unfit for human habitation. - (1) Should a building, or a room in an building, be, in the opinion of the [Municipality], unfit for human habitation in consequence of the want of proper means of drainage or ventilation or otherwise, the [Municipality] may, by notice, prohibit the owner or occupier thereof from using the building or room for human habitation or suffering it to be so used either absolutely or unless within a time to be specified in the notice, he effects such alteration therein as is prescribed in the notice.

(2) Upon failure of a person to whom notice is issued under sub-section (1) to comply therewith, it shall be lawful for the [Municipality] to require by further notice the demolition of the building or room.

279. Penalty for failure to give information of cholera, small-pox, etc. - Whoever, -

(a) being a medical practitioner and in the course of such practice becoming cognizant of the existence of cholera, plague, smallpox or other infectious disease that may be notified in this behalf by the [State Government] in any dwelling other than a public hospital in the [municipal area], or

(b) in default of such medical practitioner, being the owner or occupier of such dwelling, and being cognizant of the existence of any such infectious disease therein, or

(c) in default of such owner or occupier being the person-in-charge of, or in attendance on, a person suffering from any such infectious disease in such dwelling, and being cognizant of the existence of the disease therein, fails to give [within twenty-four hours of becoming so-cognizant] or gives false information to such officer as the [Municipality] may appoint in this behalf respecting the existence of such disease, shall be liable upon conviction to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees :

Provided that a person not required to give information in the first instance, but only in default of some other person, shall not be punishable if it is shown that he had reasonable cause to suppose that the information had been, or would be, duly given.

[279A. Power to examine persons suspected to be suffering from infectious diseases. - When there is any reason to believe that a case of infectious disease notifiable under Section 279 has occurred in a building the Medical Officer of Health or other competent person deputed by him shall, subject to the provisions of Section 287, enter the said building and make an examination of the person or persons suspected to be suffering from the disease and may also obtain material for pathological examination, if necessary :
Provided that all females above the age of eight years shall be inspected by persons of their own sex only.]

280. Removal to hospital of patients. - When a person suffering or certified by a duly qualified medical practitioner to be suffering from cholera, plague, small-pox or any other infectious disease that may be notified in this behalf by the [State Government] is, -
(a) without proper lodging or accommodation, or
(b) living in a sarai or other public hostel, or
(c) living in a room or house which he neither owns nor is otherwise entitled to occupy, or
(d) lodged in a room or set of apartments occupied by more than one family and any of the occupiers objects to his continuing to lodge therein,

(2) The regulations made under Section 297 and U.P. Primary Education Act, 1919 and the bye-laws made under Section 298 shall be published in the Official Gazette.]

[301A. State Government may modify or repeal bye-laws. - (1) If, at any time, it appears to the State Government that any bye-law should be modified or repealed either wholly or in part, it shall cause its reasons for such opinion to be communicated to the municipality and prescribe reasonable period within which the municipality may make any representation with regard thereto which it shall think fit.

(2) After receipt and consideration of any such representation or, if in the meantime no such representation is received, after the expiry of the prescribed period, the State Government may at any time, by notification in the Official Gazette, modify, or repeal such bye-law either wholly or in part.

(3) The modification or repeal of a bye-law under sub-section (2) shall take effect from the date of the publication of the notification in the Official Gazette.]

CHAPTER X
Procedure
Municipal notices

302. Fixation of reasonable time for compliance. - Where any notice issued under any section of this Act or under any rule or bye-law requires an act to be done for which no time is fixed by such section or rule or bye-law, the notice shall specify a reasonable time for doing the same, and it shall rest with the Court to determine whether the time so specified was a reasonable time within the meaning of this section.

303. Service of notice. - (1) Every notice or bill issued or prepared under any section of this Act or under any rule or bye-law shall, unless it is in such section or rule or bye-law otherwise expressly provided, be served or presented, -

(a) by giving or tendering the notice or bill, or sending it by post, to the person to whom it is addressed; or

(b) if such person is not found, then by giving the notice or bill at his last known place of abode, if within municipal limits, or by giving or tendering the notice or bill to some adult male member or servant of his family, or by causing the notice or bill to be fixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land (if any) to which the notice or bill relates.

(2) When a notice under this Act or under a rule or a bye-law is required or permitted by or under this Act, or under a rule or a bye-law to be served upon an owner or occupier of a building or land, it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier therein, and the service thereof, in cases not otherwise specially provided for in this Act, shall be effected either, -

(a) by giving or tendering the notice, or sending it by post, to the owners or occupier, or if there be more owners or occupiers than one, to any one of them; or

(b) if no such owner or occupier is found, then by giving or tendering the notice to an adult male member or servant of his family, or by causing the notice to be fixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land to which the same relates.

(3) Whenever the person on whom a notice or bill is to be served is a minor, service upon his guardian or upon an adult male member or servant of his family shall be deemed to be served upon the minor.

304. Method of giving public notice. - Subject to the provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation or bye-law, in every case where public notice is to be given by a [Municipality], such notice shall be deemed to have been given if it is published in some local English or vernacular paper (if any) and posted upon the notice board to be exhibited for public information at the building in which the meetings of the [Municipality] are ordinarily held.

305. Defective form. - No notice or bill shall be invalid for defect of form.

306. Disobedience to public notice or provision of Act applicable to the public. - Where, by this Act or a notice issued thereunder, the public is required to do or to refrain from doing anything, a person who fails to comply with such requisition shall, if such failure is not an offence punishable under any other section, be liable on conviction by a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding [one thousand] rupees for every such failure, and, in the case of continuing breach, to a further fine which may extend to [twenty-five] rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the breach.

307. Disobedience to notice issued to individual. - If a notice has been given under the provisions of this Act or under a rule or bye-law to a person requiring him to execute a work in respect of any property, movable or immovable, public or private, or to provide or do, or refrain from doing anything within a time specified in the notice, and if such a person fails to comply with such a notice, then -

(a) the [Municipality] may cause such work to be executed or such thing to be provided or done, and may recover all expenses incurred by it on such account from the said person in the manner provided by Chapter VI; and further;

(b) the said person shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine which may extend to [one thousand] rupees, and in case of continuing breach, to a further fine which may extend to [twenty-five rupees] for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the offence.

308. Liability of occupier to pay in default of owner. - (1) If the person to whom the notice mentioned in Section 307 has been given, is the owner of the property in respect of which it is given, the [Municipality] may (whether any action or other proceeding has been brought or taken against such owner or not) require the person, if any, who occupies such property or a part thereof under such owner to pay to the [Municipality] instead of to the owner, the rent payable by him in respect of such property, as it falls due, upto the amount recoverable from the owner under Section 307; and any such payment made by the occupier to the [Municipality] shall, in the absence of any contract between the owner and the occupier to the contrary, be deemed to have been made to the owner of the property.

(2) For the purpose of deciding whether action should be taken under sub-section (1), the [Municipality] may require an occupier of property to furnish information as to the sum payable by him as rent on account of such property and as to the name and address of the person to whom it is payable and if the occupier refuses to furnish such information he shall be liable for the whole of the expenses as if he were the owner.

(3) All money recoverable by the [Municipality] under this section shall be recoverable in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

309. Right of occupier to execute works in default of owner. - Whenever default is made by the owner of a building or land in the execution of a work required by or under this Act to be executed by him, the occupier of such building or land may, with the approval of the [Municipality], cause such work to be executed, and the expenses thereof shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent, from time to time, becoming due from him to such owner.

310. Procedure upon opposition to execution by occupier. - (1) If, after receiving information of the intention of the owner of any building or land to take any action in respect thereof in compliance with a notice issued under this Act, the occupier refuses to allow such owner to take such action, the owner may apply to a Magistrate.

(2) The Magistrate upon proof of such refusal may make an order in writing requiring the occupier to allow the owner to execute all such works, with respect to such building or land, as may be necessary for compliance with the notice, and may also, if he thinks fit, order the occupier to pay to the owner the costs relating to such application or order.

(3) If, after the expiration of eight days from the date of Magistrate's order, the occupier continues to refuse to allow the owner to execute such work, the occupier shall be liable, upon conviction to a fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees for every day during which he has so continued to refuse.

(4) Every owner, during the continuance of such refusal, shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

311. Recovery of cost of work by the occupier. - When the occupier of a building or land has, in compliance with a notice issued under the provisions of this Act, executed a work for which the owner of such building or land is responsible, either in pursuance of the contract of tenancy or by law, shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be entitled to recover from the owner by deduction from the rent payable by him or otherwise the reasonable cost of such work.

312. Recovery of expenses of removal by [Municipality] under Sections 211, 263, 264, 265 and 278. - (1) The expenses incurred by the [Municipality] in effecting any removal under Section 263 or 265 or, in the event of a written notice under Sections 211, 263, 264 or 278 not being complied with under Section 307, shall be recoverable by sale of the materials removed, and if the proceeds of such sale do not suffice, the balance shall be recoverable from the owner of the said materials in the manner provided by Chapter VI.

(2) If the expenses of removal are in any case paid before the materials are sold, the [Municipality] shall restore the materials to the owner thereof, on his claiming the same at any time before they are sold or otherwise disposed of and on his paying all other expenses, if any, incurred by the [Municipality] in respect thereof, or in respect of the intended sale or disposal thereof.

(3) If the materials are not claimed by the owner thereof, they shall be sold by auction or otherwise disposed of as the [Municipality] thinks fit, as soon as conveniently may be after one month from the date of their removal, whether the expenses of the removal have in the meantime been paid or not; and the proceeds, if any, of the sale or other disposal shall, after defraying therefrom the costs of the sale or their disposal, and if necessary, of the removal, be paid to the credit of the municipal fund, and shall be the property of the [Municipality].

313. Relief to agents and trustees. - (1) When a person, by reason of his receiving, or being entitled to receive, the rent of immovable property as trustee or agent of a person or society would, under this Act, be found to discharge an obligation imposed by this Act on the owner of the property and for the discharge of which money is required, he shall not be bound to discharge the obligation unless, he has, or but for his own improper act or default might have had, in his hands funds belonging to the owner sufficient for the purpose.

(2) When an agent or trustee has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the [Municipality] may give him notice to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first moneys which come to his hands on behalf, or for the use of the owner, and should he fail to comply such notice, he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge such obligation.

Prosecutions

314. Authority for prosecution. - Unless otherwise expressly provided, no Court shall take cognizance of any of the offences punishable under this Act (whereof a list is given in Schedule VIII for the purpose merely of easier reference) or under any rule or bye-law, except on the complaint of, or upon information received from, the [Municipality] or some person authorised by the [Municipality] by general or special order in this behalf.

315. [Power to compound offences. - (1) The Executive Officer or Medical Officer of Health of a [Municipality] or in municipalities in which there is no Executive Officer or Medical Officer of Health, the president of a [Municipality] may either before or after the institution of proceedings, compound an offence against this Act or a rule or bye-law, except an offence described in Sections 237(4), 242, 246, 247, 281, 285(5) or 295 :

Provided that no offence shall be compoundable which is constituted by failure to comply with a written notice issued by or on behalf of the [Municipality], unless the notice has been complied with, in so far as compliance is possible.

(2) When an offence has been compounded, the offender, if in custody shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of the offence so compounded.

(3) Sums paid by way of composition under this section shall be credited to the municipal fund.

316. Compensation for damage to municipal property. - If through an act, neglect or default on account whereof a person shall have incurred a penalty imposed by or under this Act any damage to the property of the [Municipality] shall have been caused, the person incurring such penalty shall be liable to make good such damage as well as to pay such penalty; and the amount of damage shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the Magistrate by whom the person incurring such penalty is convicted, and on non-payment of such amount on demand the same shall be levied by distress, and such Magistrate shall issue his warrant accordingly.

317. Powers and duties of police in respect of offences and assistance to municipal authorities. - Every police officer shall give immediate information to the [Municipality] of an offence coming to his knowledge which has been committed against this Act or against an Act referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 114, or against any rule made under any of the said Acts and shall be bound to assist all members, officers and servants of the [Municipality] in the exercise of their lawful authority.

Appeals from orders of [Municipality] and suits against the [Municipality]

318. Appeals from order of [Municipality]. - (1) Any person aggrieved by any order or direction made by [Municipality] under the powers conferred upon it by Sections 180(1), 186, [204], 205(1), 208, 211, [212], 222 (6), 241(2), 245, 278 and 285 or under a bye-law made under Heading 'G' of Section 298, may within thirty days from the date of such direction or order, exclusive of the time requisite for obtaining a copy thereof, appeal to such officer as the [State Government] may appoint for the purpose of hearing such appeals or any of them, or failing such appointment, to the District Magistrate.

(2) The Appellate Authority may, if it thinks fit, extend the period allowed by sub-section (1) for appeal.

(3) No appeal shall be dismissed or allowed in part or whole unless reasonable opportunity of showing cause or being heard has been given to the parties.

319. Reference to High Court - (1) If on the hearing of an appeal under Section 318 any question as to the legality of the promotion, direction, notice or order arises on which the officer hearing the appeal entertains reasonable doubt, he may, either of his own motion or on the application of any person interested, draw up a statement of facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer the statement, with his own opinion on the point, for the decision of the High Court.

(2) On a reference being made under sub-section (1), the subsequent proceedings in this case shall be as nearly as may be in conformity with the rules relating to references to the High Court contained in Order XLVI of the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), or such other rules as are made by the High Court under Section 122 of that Code.

320. Costs. - (1) The Court deciding the appeal shall have power to award costs at its discretion.

(2) Costs awarded under this section to the [Municipality] shall be recoverable by the [Municipality] as if they were arrears of a tax due from the appellant.

(3) If the [Municipality] fails to pay any costs awarded to an appellant under this section within ten days after the date of the communication of the order for payment thereof, the Court awarding the costs may order the person having the custody of the balance of the municipal fund to pay the amount.

321. Finality of order of Appellate Authority. - (1) No order or direction referred to in Section 318 shall be questioned in any other manner or by any other authority than is provided therein.

(2) The order of the Appellate Authority confirming, setting aside or modifying any such order or direction shall be final :

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Appellate Authority, upon application, and after giving notice to the other party, to review any order passed by him in appeal by a further order passed within three months from the date of his original order.

[322. Suspension of orders passed under Section 318 pending decision of appeal or civil suit regarding the subject of appeal or civil suit. - Where an order or direction referred to in Section 318 is subject to appeal and an appeal has been instituted against it, or a civil suit has been instituted in respect thereof, all proceedings to enforce such order and all prosecutions for a breach thereof, may, by order of the Appellate Authority or of the Civil Court, as the case may be, be suspended pending the decision of the appeal or the civil suit, and if such order is set aside on appeal or by the decision of the Civil Court disobedience thereof shall not be deemed to be an offence.]

323. Appeals from certain orders of a Court. - Every order of forfeiture under Section 201 and every order under Section 302 or Section 258 shall be subject to appeal to the next superior court to that by which the order was passed, but shall not be otherwise open to appeal or revision.

324. Disputes as to compensation payable by [Municipality]. - (1) Should a dispute arise touching the amount of compensation which the [Municipality] is required by this Act to pay, it shall be settled in such manner as the parties may agree, or in default of agreement, by the Collector upon application made to him by the [Municipality] or the person claiming compensation.

(2) Any decision of the Collector awarding compensation shall be subject to a right of the applicant for compensation to require reference to the District Judge in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 18 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Act I of 1894).

(3) In cases in which compensation is claimed in respect of land, the Collector and the District Judge shall, as far as may be, observe the procedure prescribed by the said Act for proceedings in respect of compensation for the acquisition of land acquired for public purposes.

325. Decision of disputes between local authorities. - (1) Should a dispute arise between a [Municipality] and any other local authority on any matter in which they are jointly interested, such dispute shall be referred to the [State Government], whose decision shall be final.

(2) The [State Government] may regulate by rule made under Section 296 the relation to be observed between [Municipality] and other local authorities in any matter in which they are jointly interested.

326. Suits against [Municipality] or its officers. - (1) No suit shall be instituted against a [Municipality], or against a member, officer or servant of a [Municipality], in respect of an act done or purporting to have been done in its or his official capacity, until the expiration of two months next after notice in writing has been in the case of a [Municipality], left at its office, and, in case a member, officer or servant, delivered to him or left at his office or place of abode, explicitly stating the cause of action, the nature of the relief sought, the amount of compensation claimed, and the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff, and the plaint shall contain a statement that such notice has been so delivered or left.

(2) If the [Municipality], member, officer or servant shall, before action is commenced, have tendered sufficient amends to the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall not recover any sum in excess of the amount so tendered, shall also pay all costs incurred by the defendant after such tender.

(3) No action such as is described in sub-section (1) shall, unless it is an action for the recovery of immovable property or for a declaration of title thereto, be commenced otherwise than within six months next after the accrual of the cause of action.

(4) Provided that nothing in sub-section (1) shall be construed to apply to a suit wherein the only relief claimed is an injunction of which the object would be defeated by the giving of the notice or the postponement of the commencement of the suit or proceeding.

[326A. Civil Court not to grant temporary injunctions in certain cases. - No Civil Court shall in the course of any suit grant any temporary injunction or make any interim order, -]

[(a) restraining any person from exercising the powers or performing the functions or duties of a President of] [* * ] of a [Municipality] or by Chairman of a committee or sub-committee of a [Municipality] or of a member, officer or servant of a [Municipality] or of a committee or sub-committee of a [Municipality] on the ground that such person has not been duly elected, nominated or appointed as such President, [ * *], Chairman, member, officer or servant; or

- (b) restraining any person or persons or any [Municipality] or committee or sub-committee of a [Municipality] from holding any election, or from holding any election in any particular manner.
